Section A. Conditions of Agreement

1. Introduction

- 1) These House Rules govern the use of wagering operations located at the Prairie Band Casino & Resort as well as the Prairie Band Sportsbook website(s) and mobile app (“App”), collectively the “Site”. When placing a bet with Prairie Band Sportsbook, the patron or the authorized account holder is agreeing that they have read, understood, and agree to be bound by these House Rules at the time of bet placement.

The House Rules consist of the following:

- Section A - Conditions of Agreement
- Section B - General Betting Rules
- Section C - Sport Specific Rules
- Section D - eSport Specific Rules
- Section E - Sport Specific Limits

The General Betting Rules apply to all bets with Prairie Band Sportsbook unless stated otherwise in the Specific Sports Rules. If there is any inconsistency between the Sports and eSports Specific Rules and the General Betting Rules, the Sports and eSports Specific Rules shall prevail. General Betting Rules will apply to any category of bets or markets not referred to in the Sports and eSports Specific Rules (i.e., special bets).

- 2) The use of Prairie Band Sportsbook is subject to the regulatory authority of the Prairie Band Potawatomi Tribal Gaming Commission (the “Gaming Commission”). In the event of a conflict between these House Rules and any of these regulatory authorities, the regulatory authorities and their provisions will prevail.
- 3) Any questions regarding Site, an account, or use of the Site, will be addressed by visiting <https://www.prairieband.com/contact-us/>.
- 4) Any complaints, claims or disputes concerning any outcome of any sports wager placed with Prairie Band Sportsbook may be brought in person to the Prairie Band Sportsbook in Mayetta, KS. You may also contact us in writing at ATTN: Guest Relations Department, 12305 150th Road, Mayetta, KS 66509. All requests will be responded to within ten (10) business days of being received. Should the reply not be considered satisfactory, a request to appeal the dispute may be completed in writing to the Gaming Commission.
- 5) Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to make changes to the Site, betting limits, payout limits and offerings.
- 6) Prairie Band Sportsbook may update, amend, edit and supplement these House Rules at any time, subject to any necessary regulatory approval. Any such revision will be binding and effective immediately once such revisions or revised House Rules are made available to patrons through updates to the House Rules posted at the betting windows, kiosk, the casino cage or the Site. Any wagers accepted after the rule changes have been made available to guests shall be governed by the revised Prairie Band Sportsbook House Rules.
- 7) Prairie Band Sportsbook's final determination as to the interpretation and application of the house rules is binding on the patron.
- 8) Wagers may only be placed by patrons 21 years or older, physically located within the state of Kansas and not on any exclusionary list in Kansas.

- 9) Wagers may only be made using cash, a validated winning ticket, or other representative of value or credits from a wagering account.
- 10) Prairie Band Sportsbook is not responsible for misprinted, lost, stolen, mutilated and/or damaged, forged or altered tickets. Once the rightful owner of a winning ticket has been determined, payment will be made as soon as possible. All determinations concerning the ownership of lost or stolen tickets shall lie in the absolute discretion of Prairie Band Sportsbook and shall be final.

Winning tickets expire after 180 calendar days from the time of the event. Winning tickets must be redeemed by mail, at the Prairie Band Sportsbook windows or the Casino Cage in Mayetta, Kansas.

- 11) All wagers purchased on the Site will be evidenced by a transaction in the patron's account. Once a wager is accepted, bets will not be altered or voided except at the discretion of Prairie Band Sportsbook. All patrons are responsible for ensuring accuracy of their bet prior to exiting the sports wagering window or kiosk, or if purchased at the Prairie Band Sportsbook, on the bet receipt.
- 12) The time of all tickets is local Kansas time.
- 13) Pre-game wagers are accepted up to the start of the game. If a pre-game wager is inadvertently accepted after the start of the event the wager will be treated as "no action" (this excludes live in-game wagering).
- 14) If Prairie Band Sportsbook has reason to believe that a bet is placed after the outcome of an event is known, it reserves the right to void the bet, win or lose.
- 15) Wagers may not be accepted at other than posted odds.
- 16) The following persons are prohibited from placing a Sportsbetting wager or collecting winnings on wagers:
 - A person under 21 years of age;
 - A person who is excluded either voluntarily or involuntarily;
 - Any person prohibited from placing a wager pursuant to federal law;

- 17) Current odds will be displayed on the retail odds boards, kiosks, and Site. The patron is responsible for checking these sources of information for the most current odds.

- 18) Winning sports wagers will be paid in cash or via check or other manner as approved by the Gaming Commission. Winnings on the Site will be automatically credited to the patron's account. Winnings are subject to IRS reporting and withholding requirements, if applicable.
- 19) Any reference in these House Rules to words/objects that appear in singular also applies to plural. References to gender are non-binding and to be treated for information purposes only. All references to "including" shall mean "including without limitation".
- 20) Any reference to the Prairie Band Sportsbook located at the casino shall apply to all retail supported devices including the sportsbook kiosks (self-service terminals or SST), betting windows point of sale (over the counter or OTC) and saving a wager on your mobile device (Bring Your Own Device or BYOD).

2. Definitions

- 1) "Error" is a mistake, misprint, misinterpretation, mishearing, misreading, mistranslation, spelling mistake, technical hazard, registration error, transaction error, manifest error, force majeure and/or similar which may or may not be apparent to Prairie Band Sportsbook or the patron at the relevant time and which has caused or resulted in a bet being offered and/or accepted. Examples of errors include, but are not limited to:
 - Bets accepted due to technical problems that would otherwise not have been accepted; at odds/prices that differ from the odds/prices that would have otherwise been offered.
 - Bets accepted on events/offers that have already been decided or concluded, or during a period in which Prairie Band Sportsbook had suspended betting.
 - Bets accepted on events or offers after the event, match or offer has started (with the exception of live betting).
 - Bets accepted on events or markets containing incorrect participants and/or not allowed within the applicable jurisdiction.
 - Bets accepted at odds that are materially different from those available in the general market at the time the bet was placed.
 - Bets accepted at odds which reflect an incorrect score, standing or ranking situation, such as where incorrect odds are offered, as a result of any errors or omissions made in respect of the announcing, publishing, or reporting of a score, standing or ranking situation.
 - Bets accepted at odds that are materially different from those available in the general betting industry at the time the bet was accepted, whereby Prairie Band Sportsbook will use a majority of betting industry operators, to determine whether odds offered were "materially different".
 - Bets placed by someone other than the patron or account holder (including where someone has gained access to the patron's account) or where the patron is victim of fraudulent activity.
 - Bets accepted otherwise than in accordance with applicable laws.
 - Bets resulting in an incorrect payout or a result of a cyberattack.
 - Bets accepted or paid out as a result of fraud or manipulation of an offer or settlement process.
- 2) "Influence Betting" is an act, prohibited by Prairie Band Sportsbook, where a patron, account holder or party acting in association with a patron or account holder can influence, or have influenced, the outcome of a game or match or an event - directly or indirectly.

- 3) "Syndicate Betting" is an act, prohibited by Prairie Band Sportsbook, where patrons or account holders act together to place a series of bets on the same event or competition, or when a patron or account holder places a bet on behalf, or for the intended benefit, of another individual or other individuals. Where there is evidence of patrons or account holders acting together in this manner Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to make the relevant bets void and/or withhold payment of returns pending the outcome of subsequent investigations.

3. Bet Acceptance

- 1) When placing a wager on the Site, a bet is not valid until it shows in the account holder's bet history. In cases of uncertainty about whether a bet has been accepted, the patron is requested to check the open (pending) bets or contact Prairie Band Sportsbook customer service.
- 2) Unless accepted in Error, once accepted, a bet cannot be withdrawn by the patron or account holder. It is the patron's or account holder's responsibility to ensure details of the bets placed are correct. Under no circumstance will Prairie Band Sportsbook be responsible for any mistakes (perceived or actual) deriving from either Errors as defined in these Conditions, or any other reason, such as but not limited to, incorrect listing of the odds/betting objects.
- 3) Should a dispute arise about the acceptance (or lack thereof) of any bet, or the time at which any bet was placed, Prairie Band Sportsbook's transaction log database will be the ultimate authority in determining such matters.
- 4) Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to refuse to accept any bet at any time and for any reason to:
 - a) Preserve the integrity of the market offered (e.g., events where there is an exceptional or unbalanced number of bets on the same market).
 - b) Protect the patron or account holder (e.g., event in which the patron or account holder displays compulsive behavior).
 - c) Protect other users (e.g., event in which a patron or account holder displays betting pattern(s) that could adversely affect the regular betting of other patrons.
 - d) To protect the Prairie Band Sportsbook (e.g., event in which the patron or account holder exhibits money laundering, collusive or fraudulent behavior suspicion of use of a third party's account, allowing a third party to use the account, or using automated means, bots, software or similar means, or engaging in arbitrage).
- 5) If a bet placed by a patron or account holder is greater than that deemed acceptable by Prairie Band Sportsbook, Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to accept a portion of the bet up to a certain amount.

4. Betting and Payout Limitation

- 1) Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to limit the net payout (the payout after the stake has been deducted) on any bet or combination of bets by one patron to $250,000 for bets placed or settled within a 24-hour period. Extension of this limit requires approval by the Director of Gaming or above. This limit may be lower depending on the specific sport, league and type of bet offer. See Section E – Sport Specific Limits for additional detail of payout limits by sport, league and bet type.
- 2) Prairie Band Sportsbook does not permit wagers of less than $5.00 at the betting windows and $1.00 at kiosks & on the Site. The maximum wager amount is dependent upon the total payout amount and Prairie Band Sportsbook may require supervisor approval.

- 3) Patrons must provide identification for any single wager or combination of wagers greater than $10,000 within a 24-hour period.
- 4) All bet selections are subject to pre-imposed limits set solely at Prairie Band Sportsbook's discretion which may be lower than the limits mentioned in Sport Specific Limits, Section E. Should this limit be reached, a patron has the right to ask for it to be increased at the Prairie Band Sportsbook or by making a request through the Site. Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to accept (fully or partially) or reject the request without any prior notice and further explanation.
- 5) Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to decline all, or part of, any bet requested, solely at its own discretion. This includes the possibility that a "System bet" as defined in the General Betting Rules, Section B, Paragraph 4, is not accepted in full, either in terms of stake or combination included in the "System bet".
- 6) Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to restrict, limit or exclude patrons, totally or partially, at its own discretion.
- 7) All bets placed through any Prairie Band Sportsbook platform, including bets requiring manual approval, may be subject to a time delay prior to acceptance, the length of which may vary. Such delay is to be determined by Prairie Band Sportsbook at its sole discretion.
- 8) Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to withhold payment and/or to declare bets void on an event (or series of events) if there is sufficient evidence that any of the following has occurred:
 - a) The integrity of the event has been called into question;
 - b) The price(s) or pool has been manipulated;
 - c) Game-fixing has taken place, or the game/match is under investigation for such;
 - d) Results/outcomes need further investigation with a third-party organization, including, but not limited to, the governing body and/or the relevant regulatory body.
- 9) All odds offered are subject to variation. Such fluctuation is determined solely by Prairie Band Sportsbook. Bets are accepted only at the odds available on the odds boards or on the Site's odds menu at the time the bet was accepted by Prairie Band Sportsbook regardless of any other claim or previous publication present on the Site or any other media detailing otherwise.
- 10) When settling bets, all payout calculations will be done in decimal odds, regardless of another format displayed or chosen at time of bet placement.

5. Cancellation (Voiding of Bets)

- 1) Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to declare a bet void, totally or partly, if any of the following circumstances have occurred:
 - a. Bets have been offered, placed and/or accepted due to an Error and/or at odds which significantly differ from those currently present elsewhere in the betting market;
 - b. Bets placed while the kiosk, betting window or Site was encountering technical problems, that would otherwise not have been accepted;
 - c. Influence Betting;
 - d. Syndicate Betting;
 - e. A result has been affected by criminal actions - directly or indirectly;
 - f. A public announcement has occurred in relation to the bet which alters the odds;
 - g. A bet has been offered in breach of gambling regulation.

- 2) Related contingencies (correlated parlays): Unless placed through Prairie Band Sportsbook's permitted parlay functionality, or offered explicitly as a specific related contingency offering, Prairie Band Sportsbook prohibits parlay bets that include two or more outcomes which might turn out to be related (e.g., Team X to become Stanley Cup Champions and Player Y to be Top Goal Scorer in the same league). Although Prairie Band Sportsbook takes reasonable steps to prevent such possibilities, in the eventuality that this could happen, Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right, in its discretion, to declare void all parts of a parlay bet which include the correlated outcomes whose odds are not indicative of the related contingency.
- 3) Bets can be voided regardless of whether the event has been settled or not.
- 4) Past-posting and other cancellations: Should a market be available for betting when it should have been removed or with incorrect odds, Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to void all such bets as well as those in accordance with the Conditions of Agreement, Section A, Chapter 5, Clause 3, including, but not limited to:
 - a. Pre-Game Wagers
 - i. Bets placed/accepted after the event has started;
 - ii. Bets placed after a related event was underway and where conditions could have been altered in a direct and indisputable way.
 - b. In-Play Wagers (in-game)
 - i. Bets placed/accepted at incorrect odds due to delayed or failing 'Live' coverage, or on odds which represented a different score than the actual;
 - ii. Bets placed on odds which represented a different score than the actual bets placed on particular offers after these have occurred or after an event which could normally be deemed as leading to the outcome has happened or is happening;
 - iii. Bets placed following the last instance that a participant had any chance to influence the match/event scoring applicable to the relevant market and an eventual withdrawal/disqualification/cancellation/format change or anything which precludes the ability of the applicable participant/outcome to influence said scoring will be declared void;
- 5) A bet made as a Parlay Bet involving two or more distinct sporting events shall remain valid even if a game/match or an event which is part of the Parlay Bet is declared void.
- 6) In the event a Bet is declared void, the bet amount shall be returned to the patron.

6. Disclaimer and Priority

- 1) Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right, at its own discretion, to adjust a payout credited to an account holder's balance if the payout has been credited to the Account due to an Error.
- 2) For account wagering, in order to adjust any inaccuracy in the account holder's balance following amounts credited due to Error, Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to take any necessary action, without prior notice and within reasonable limits, to adjust the account holder's balance through the reversal, amendment or cancellation, of any subsequent transaction on the account holder's account.
- 3) Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to suspend access to the Sportsbook or patron's account until it completes any investigations it deems necessary.
- 4) These rules are applicable to all transactions with Prairie Band Sportsbook and may be supplemented with other rules. In the event of ambiguity, priority should be considered in the following order:
 - a. Rules and conditions published in conjunction with an offer and/or promotion
 - b. Sport-Specific Rules

c. General Sports Book rules

- 5) Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right, in its discretion, to settle offers on an individual basis on the basis of equity, using generally accepted betting norms, customs and definitions.
- 6) Any data provided or accessible in, from, or related to the Prairie Band Sportsbook may be used by the patron or account holder for private, non-commercial use only and any use or attempted use of such data for commercial purposes is strictly prohibited.

Prairie Band Sportsbook has the right to enforce this agreement against any patron or account holder.

General Betting Rules

- 1) Common Terms of Reference Unless listed either in conjunction with the bet offer, or in the Sport Specific Rules, Section C, all bets should be considered valid for the result at the end of the “Regular Time” or “Full Time” only. “Regular Time” or “Full Time” is defined as interpreted by the official rules published by the respective governing body. For example, in Soccer, Full Time is stipulated to be 90 minutes including injury time, and in Ice Hockey it is stipulated as the 3 x 20-minute periods. Should the governing body decide to stipulate, before the start of the event, that such event is to be played over a different duration, this will be treated as being the official rules for the event (e.g., a soccer match played with a 3 x 20-minute format vs. the typical 2 x 40-minute format). Nonetheless, such occurrence is limited to the “regular” playing time and does not include any prolongation such as extra time or overtime, unless explicitly stated.
- 2) “In-game betting” or “live betting” is where it is possible to bet after the game has started (i.e., during the game or event). Prairie Band Sportsbook will not be responsible if it is not possible to place a bet or if the live score update is not correct. At all times, the patron is responsible for being aware of the game and the events surrounding it, such as the current score, its progression and how much time remains before the game is completed. Prairie Band Sportsbook will not be responsible for changes to the in-game betting schedule or interruption of the in-game betting service.
- 3) The “Cash Out” function allows the patron or account holder the ability to redeem a bet prior to the outcome being settled at its current value. It is available on designated events and offered for pre-game and live as well as on single and multiple bets. Cash Out functionality cannot be used on free bets. Cash Out requests might be subject to the same delay procedure as listed in the Conditions of Agreement, Section A, Chapter 4, Clause 5. During this delay, for whatever reason, if the offer is removed or odds fluctuate, the Cash Out request will not be accepted, and the patron or account holder will be notified. Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to offer such functionality solely at its own discretion and will not be responsible if the Cash Out functionality is not available. If a Cash Out request is successful, the bet will be settled immediately and any subsequent events which occur in relation to the bet will not be considered. If a Cash Out bet is negatively impacted from a technical, pricing or settlement error at any time between the time of original offering and the final settlement, Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to rectify such inaccuracy in accordance with the Conditions of Agreement, Section A, Chapter 6, Clause 2.
- 4) The “Participant” is an object constituting part of an event. A “Participant” may be a single player, a team or any group of individuals grouped or listed together. In “Head-to-Head” and “Triple-Head”, the participant only refers to objects that are subject to the “Head-to-Head” or “Triple-Head” in the event. Any reference to a Participant(s) in these House Rules should be construed accordingly, regardless of whether the term is used in the singular or plural.

- 5) The deadline (cut-off time) shown on the Site is to be treated for information purposes only. Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right, at its own discretion, to suspend, partially or completely, the betting activity at any time where it deems necessary.
- 6) Statistics or editorial text published on the Site are to be considered as added information, and Prairie Band Sportsbook will not be responsible if the information is not correct. The patron or account holder is responsible, at all times, for being aware of circumstances relating to an event.
- 7) The theoretical return to the player in fixed odds betting is determined by the odds of all possible outcomes in the offer. For example, the theoretical payback to a player on a bet with 3 outcomes (a, b and c) can be calculated as follows.

$$\text{Theoretical \%} = 1 / (1 / \text{"odds outcome a"} + 1 / \text{"odds outcome b"} + 1 / \text{"odds outcome c"}) \times 100$$

1. Bet Types

- 1) "Straight" or "Single-Game" bet is a single wager on any spread, moneyline or total (over/under) outcome.
- 2) "Moneyline" or "Game" is where it is possible to bet on the (partial or definite) outcome of a game or event whereby there will only be one winner.
- 3) "3-way Moneyline" (or "1X2") is where it is possible to bet on the (partial or definite) outcome of a game or event inclusive of the option of a tie. The options are: "1" = Home Team; "X" = Tie; "2" = Away Team.
- 4) "Correct Score" (or "Result Betting") is where it is possible to bet on the (partial or definite) exact score of a game or event.
- 5) "Over/Under" (or "Totals") is where it is possible to bet on the (partial or definite) amount of a predefined occurrence (e.g., goals, points, corners, rebounds, penalty minutes, etc.). Should the total amount of the listed occurrences be exactly equal to the betting line, then all bets on this offer will be declared void. Example: an offer where the betting line is 44.0 points and the game ends with the result 22-22 will be declared void.
- 6) "Odd/Even" is where it is possible to bet on the (partial or definite) amount of a predefined occurrence (e.g., goals, points, corners, rebounds, penalty minutes, etc.). "Odd" is 1, 3, 5 etc.; "Even" is 0, 2, 4 etc.
- 7) A "Head-to-Head" and/or "Triple-Head" is a competition between two or three participants/outcomes, originating from either an officially organized event or as virtually defined by Prairie Band Sportsbook. An example of a Triple-Head offer is which of three golfers will finish highest in a particular event
- 8) "Half Time/Full Time" is where it is possible to bet on the Half Time result and the final outcome of the game. For example, if at Half Time the score is 10-7 and the final score is 17-21, the winning outcome is 1/2 (assuming the score is listed Home Team-Away Team, the Home Team led at the half and the Away Team won the overall game or "Full Time"). Bets on this market will be declared void should the game is played with a format where it is impossible to determine an outcome based on the timeframes listed within the offer.
- 9) "Period betting" is where it is possible to bet on the outcome of each separate period within a game/event. For example, if the period scores in an Ice Hockey game are 2-0, 0-1 and 1-1, the winning outcome is 1/2/X. Bets on this market will be declared void should the game be played with a format where it is impossible to determine an outcome based on the timeframes listed within the offer.

- 10) “Tie No Bet” (or “Draw No Bet”) is where it is possible to bet on either “1” (Home win) or “2” (Away win) as defined in the General Betting Rules, Section B, Paragraph 2. Clause 10. It is also common practice to refer to Tie No Bet in cases where no tie odds are offered. Should the specific game produce no winner (e.g., game ends as a draw) or the occurrence not happen (e.g., First Goal, Draw No Bet and match ends 0-0), all wagers will be refunded.
- 11) Spread” (or “Points Spread” for Football and Basketball, “Runline” for Baseball, “Puckline” for Hockey betting” or “Handicap”) is where it is possible to bet on whether the chosen outcome will be victorious once the listed spread/line is added/subtracted (as applicable) to the game/period/total score to which the bet refers. In those circumstances where the result after the adjustment of the spread/line is exactly equal to the betting line, then all bets on this offer will be declared void and wagers refunded. For example, a bet on -3.0 points will be declared void if the chosen team wins the game by exactly 3 points difference (10-7 or 24-27, etc.). Any reference in this section to the term “margin” is intended to be understood as the outcome emerging from the subtraction of the points/runs/goals scored by the 2 teams/participants.

Unless otherwise stated, all spreads/lines/handicaps listed on the Site are to be calculated based on the result from the start of the listed game/quarter/period to the end of the specified game/quarter/period. It is customary that for certain spread/handicap bet offers in specific sports such as Asian Handicap in Soccer, only the outcomes obtained from the time of bet placement until the end of the listed timeframe will be taken into consideration, thus disregarding any points/goals scored before the time the bet was placed and accepted. Any bet offer with these characteristics will be highlighted on the patron’s ticket or bet history on the Site with the score at the time of bet placement.

There are 3 different spread (or handicapping) formats:

2-way Spread: Team A (-7.5) vs Team B (+7.5)

- Team A is given a -7.5 point “handicap” in the game. For a bet to be won, Team A must win the game by more points than the listed spread (i.e., 8 points or more).
- Team B is given a +7.5 point advantage in the game. For the bet to win, Team B must either win the game outright or not lose by more points than their listed advantage (i.e., lose by 7 points or less).
- In the case the spread/line is a whole number (e.g., 7.0), the wager is refunded in the event that the game ends in a tie when taking the spread into account. For example, Team A has a spread of -7.0 and wins the game by exactly 7 points, (e.g., 27-20), the wagers will be refunded. Likewise, if the patron places a wager on Team B at +7.0 and Team B loses by exactly 7 points, the wager is refunded.

3-way Handicap (primarily betting on Soccer): Team A (-2) Draw (Exactly 2) Team B (+2)

- Team A is given a 2 goal “handicap” in a game. For the bet to be won, Team A must win the game by a bigger margin than the listed handicap i.e., 3 goals or more).
- Tie (or Draw) would be the victorious outcome should the game end up with exactly the listed margin (i.e., match ends with results such as 2-0, 3-1 or 4-2).
- Team B is given a 2-goal advantage in the game. For the bet to be won, Team B must either win the game outright, the game finish in a draw or not lose by a margin equal or bigger than their listed advantage (i.e., lose by a maximum of 1 goal).

Asian Handicap (primarily betting on Soccer): Team A (-1.75) vs Team B (+1.75)

- Team A is given a -1.75 goal handicap in the game. This means that the stake is divided into 2 equal bets and placed on the outcomes -1.5 and -2.0. For the bet to be fully paid out at the listed odds, Team A must win the game with a bigger margin than both of their listed handicaps (i.e., a margin of 3 goals or more). If Team A wins with only a 2 goal margin, the bet will be considered partially won with a full payout on the -1.5 part of the bet and a refund on the -2.0

side since the outcome on that part of the bet would be considered a “tie”. Should the game result in any other outcome, including a Team A victory with only a 1 goal margin, the whole wager would be lost.

- Team B is given a +1.75 goal advantage in the game. This means that the stake is divided into 2 equal bets and placed on the outcomes +1.5 and +2.0. For the bet to be fully paid out at the listed odds, Team B must either win the game outright, finish the game in a tie (draw) or not lose by a margin equal or bigger than any of their listed advantages (i.e., lose by only a maximum of 1 goal). If Team B loses by exactly 2 goals, the bet will be considered partially lost with a refund on the -2.0 part of the bet and a loss on the -1.5 part of the bet. Should the game result in any outcome which results in a defeat of Team B with a margin of 3 or more goals, the whole stake would be lost.

Alternative lines/spreads (also known as Teasers)

- A “Teaser” is where the patron can “buy” additional points at less favorable odds than the main spread of any particular game. For example: the main line may be Phoenix -3 at odds -110, but the patron wants to bet Phoenix -1.5 points. The odds given in this example might instead be 150.
- Prairie Band Sportsbook might offer several different spreads/handicap lines on any given game.

- 12) “Double Chance” is where it is possible to bet simultaneously on two (partial or definite) outcomes of a game or event, typically in a 3-way Moneyline bet (or “1X2” bet). The options are: 1X, 12 and X2 with “1”, “X” and “2” as defined in the General Betting Rules, Section B, Paragraph 2, Clause 3
- 13) Futures” (or “Outright” or “Place”) betting is where it is possible to choose from a list of alternatives and bet on the eventuality that a participant wins or places within a specified position in the classification of the listed event/competition. Should two or more participants share finishing positions, the settlement will be based as per the definition in the General Betting Rules, Section B, Paragraph 5, Clause 13.
- 14) An “Each Way” bet (aka EW) refers to a bet where the chosen selection must either Win or Place within the payout terms. The bet is divided in two parts (the “Win” part and the “Place” part) of an equal stake. Settlement of such bets will take into account the applicable rules governing the “Win” and “Place” bets, namely the Sport Specific Rules, Section C, as well as the General Betting Rules, Section B, Paragraph 5, Clause 14.
- 15) “Goal minutes” is where it is possible to bet on the sum of the minutes when the goals have been scored (primarily Soccer). When settling such bets, goals scored in injury time of both halves are to be considered as having been scored in the 45th minute in case the goal was scored in the first half injury time and the 90th minute in case the goal was scored in the second half injury time. Own goals will not count towards the settlement of individual player’s “goal minutes”.

2. Betting Props

- 1) "Head-to-Heads" or Fantasy/Virtual "Matches" are implicit match-ups where the performances of two or more participants/teams which are not directly playing each other in the same match/event/round are compared. Settlement will be based on the number of times each participant records a predefined occurrence (e.g., goals) in the respective match. The following criteria will be used to determine the settlement of these type of offerings:
 - a) Unless specifically stated, the bets refer to the next official match/event/round (as applicable) that the listed participants/teams are scheduled to take part in.
 - b) All related games/events must be completed on the same day/session which the game/event/round is scheduled to be completed for bets to stand, except for those offers the outcomes of which has been decided prior to the abandonment and could not possibly be changed regardless of future events, which will be settled according to the decided outcome.

- c) Results for these offers will only consider occurrences deriving from the actual play. Results attributable to walk-overs, as well as other decisions as specified in clauses 2, 3 and 4 of the General Betting Rules, Section B, Paragraph 5, will not be taken into consideration.
- d) Should the aforementioned criteria be inconclusive in determining the outcome for these offers, the following criteria will be progressively referenced to settle the offering:
 - i. the applicable Sport Specific Rules, Section C; and
 - ii. Result Settlement rules as listed in the General Betting Rules, Section B, Paragraph 5.

Bets will be settled as void should it still be impossible to determine a winning outcome.

- 2) "Grand Salami" is where it is possible to bet on the total number of listed occurrences (e.g., Total Goals, Total Runs) happening in a collection of games/events on a specified round/day/game day. All related games/events must be completed for bets to stand except for those the outcomes of which have been decided prior to the abandonment and could not possibly be changed regardless of future events, which will be settled according to the decided outcome.
- 3) Over/Under bets on classification of participants in performances/events must be interpreted as follows: "Over" means a worse or lower position while "Under" means a better or higher position. Example: A bet on a player's classification in a tournament with an Over/Under line 2.5 will be settled as Under if the player classifies first or second. All other placements will be settled as Over.
- 4) Bets on "Quarter/Half/Period X" refer to the result/score achieved in the relevant timeframe and does not include any other points/goals/events tallied from other parts of the game/event/match. Bets on this market will be declared void should the game be played in a format where it is impossible to determine an outcome for the timeframes specified in the offer.
- 5) Bets on "Result at end of Quarter/Half/Period X" refer to the result of the game/match/event after termination of the stipulated timeframe and will take into account all other points/goals/events tallied from previous parts of the game/event/match. Bets on this market will be declared void should the game be played in a format where it is impossible to determine an outcome for the timeframes specified in the offer.
- 6) Bets on "Race to X Points", "Race to X Goals" and similar offers refer to the team/participant that is the first to reach the specified tally of points/goals/events. If the offer lists a timeframe (or any other period restriction), it will not include any other points/goals/events tallied from other parts of the game/event/match which are not related to the mentioned timeframe. Should the listed score not be reached within the stipulated timeframe (if any), all bets will be declared void, unless odds for such eventuality have been published within the market.
- 7) Bets on "Touchdown X Scorer", "Winner of Point X" and similar offers refer to the team/participant scoring/winning the listed occurrence. For the settlement of these offers, no reference to events happening prior to the listed occurrence will be taken into consideration. Should the listed occurrence not be scored/won within the stipulated timeframe (if any), all bets will be declared void, unless odds for such eventuality have been published within the market.
- 8) Bets referring to the happening of a particular occurrence in a pre-defined time order, such as "Next Team to receive penalty minutes" or "First Card" will be settled as void should it not be possible, without any reasonable doubt, to decide the winning outcome, for example in case of players from different teams which are shown a card in the same interruption of play.

- 9) “To score first and win” refers to the listed team/participant being the first to register any scoring in the game and going on to win the game. Should there be no scoring in the game, all bets will be settled as void.
- 10) Any reference to “Clean Sheet” or “Shutout” indicates that the listed team/participant must not concede any goal/points during the game/relevant timeframe.
- 11) “To win from behind” refers to the listed team/participant winning the game after having been at least 1 point/run/goal behind their opponents at any point in the game/relevant timeframe.
- 12) Any reference for a team/participant to win all halves/periods (e.g., Team to win both halves) means that the listed team must score more points/goals than its opponent during all the stipulated halves/periods of the game.
- 13) Any reference to “Injury Time” refers to the amount displayed by the designated official and not to the actual amount played.
- 14) Settlement of bets on offers such as “Most Valuable Player”, “Man of the Match,” etc. will be based on the competition’s organizer’s decision, unless otherwise stated.
- 15) Settlement of bets which make reference to terms such as “go-ahead scorer” or “decisive goal” will be settled based on the scorer of the points/run/goal that at the end of the game/match/tie (as applicable) proves to be the one that has produced an unassailable lead, following which any further points/runs/goals would prove to be irrelevant towards the final outcome. For a bet to be settled as “YES”, the listed player’s team must be declared winner of that particular game/match (in case of one game) or progressing to the next round/winning the competition. Points/runs/goals scored in Regular Time and overtime or extra time count (but not Penalty Shoot-outs in Soccer).
- 16) Bets on events which feature a selection of episodes that could happen in a game/match (e.g., “What will happen first to the player?” with options Score a goal, get a Yellow/Red Card, Be Substituted) will be settled as void should none of the listed events/outcomes occur, unless odds for such eventuality have been published within the market.
- 17) Settlement of Transfer bets will also take into account players signed by the club on loan deals.
- 18) Bets referring to Managerial changes refer to the individual in the Head Coach/Manager role (as applicable) who steps down/is removed from the position for any reason. Bets are valid even in cases where a joint responsible (if any) leaves their position and will be settled accordingly. In case that no more changes are happening between the time the bet is placed and the last league event (excluding Playoffs, Playouts, Postseason, etc.), the bets placed after the last Managerial change (if any) will be void, unless a suitable option has been offered for betting. Soccer markets will consider and settle accordingly, any interim/caretaker Head Coach/Manager who since the last Managerial change has led the team for 10 consecutive games.
- 19) Offers referring to which team/participant will achieve a particular accomplishment against another team/participant (e.g., Next team to beat Team X), as well as offers which refer to the classification on a certain date, will stand and be settled regardless of any eventual event changes and number of games/rounds played.
- 20) Settlement of offers referring to which team/participant will be the first to achieve a particular accomplishment against other team(s)/participant(s) (e.g., Team to score first on Gameday X) will be based upon the timeframe in the respective game/match in which the feat has been accomplished. For example, Team A plays on Thursday and scores their first touchdown in the 13th minute of play while Team B plays on Sunday and scores their first touchdown after 5 minutes of play, then Team B will be settled as winner.

- 21) From time-to-time Prairie Band Sportsbook, at its sole discretion and without prejudice to related contingencies as described in the Conditions of Agreement, Section A, Paragraph 5, Clause 4, might decide to publish offerings referring either to the single performance of a participant/team or offerings which combine the potential outcomes of 2 or more teams/participants (e.g., Enhanced Multiples, Boosted Odds, etc.), at higher odds than those normally available. Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to withdraw such offers, edit the respective odds and effect any further changes Prairie Band Sportsbook might deem necessary at its sole discretion.

Settlement of these offers will be based on the following criteria in the listed order:

1. Unless specifically stated, the offer refers only to the listed day(s) and/or next official game/match/event/round (as applicable) in which the listed participants/teams are scheduled to take part in at the time the offer is published;
 2. Results settled as per respective Sport Specific Rules, Section C. All related events must be completed as scheduled within the applicable timeframes for bets to stand unless any other outcome in the offer would incontrovertibly determine the outcome of the offer in a way that completion (or lack of thereof) of the other events listed in the offer would not influence the outcome of the offer. Such markets will be settled according to the already determined outcomes;
 3. Unless explicitly stated within the offer, result settlement will only take into account occurrences deriving from the actual play. Results attributable to walk-overs, protests, changes to the first official result, etc. will not be taken into consideration. Stakes will be refunded should it be impossible to determine a winning outcome in accordance with the respective Sport Specific Rules, Section C;
 4. All connotations related to the offer must be fully and unquestionably complied with for the bet to be deemed as winning, regardless of any possible conflict with the Sport Specific Rules, Section C, or with any potential interpretation based on previous or current presentation of offers related to events in that particular sport and the way these are normally presented in Prairie Band Sportsbook. Where applicable, should the offer include any outcome the result of which ties exactly the chosen Total (Over/Under) or Spread (aka Push), this will not be considered as having accomplished the listed occurrence and will result in the bet being settled as Lost.
- 22) Although Prairie Band Sportsbook takes reasonable precautions to ensure a superior user experience, the markets might fluctuate in such a way that, at any given point in time, these markets do not represent an enhanced value comparable to related bet offers currently present on the Site. All bets remain valid regardless of these eventual fluctuations.
- 23) During selected events, Prairie Band Sportsbook will provide users with functionality to place bets combining outcomes and occurrences from the same event (aka Intra-Event Combinations), either through pre-established combinations (“Prebuilt Parlay”) present on the Site (excluding Enhanced Multiples, Boosted Odds, etc. for which the General Betting Rules, Section B, Paragraph 3, Clause 21, apply) or through the BetBuilder functionality. Such functionality is only present at Prairie Band Sportsbook’s sole discretion and without prejudice to related contingencies as described in the Conditions of Agreement, Section A, Paragraph 5, Clause 4. Settlement will be based on the respective Sport Specific Rules, Section C. All related occurrences must be fully accomplished for a bet to be considered as having happened and eventually paid out at the odds struck. Stakes will be refunded if any part of the combination is settled as void. Where applicable, should the combination feature any outcome the result of which ties exactly the chosen Totals (Over/Under) or Spread (aka Push), such part of the combination will be removed from settlement calculation and bets will be paid out taking into consideration only the other parts of the combination.

- 24) “Teaser+” allows the user the possibility to allocate the same pre-set number of points to all outcomes present in a parlay (combination) containing Spreads (Handicaps), Totals (Over/Under) or a combination of both. Example: User combines NFL Team X +6.5 points in a parlay with Over 41 points in the NFL game between Team Y and Team Z. By choosing the “Teaser+ Football 6 points” option, the lines and odds get recalculated into a parlay featuring Team X +12.5 points (previously +6.5), combined with Over 35 points (previously Over 41). Should any part of a “Teaser+” bet be settled as void (push), that particular selection will be excluded from the parlay and the computation of odds/payout will be readjusted accordingly.
- 25) Bets referring to “Rest of the game” or similar will consider only outcomes and occurrences obtained from the time of bet placement until the end of the listed timeframe, thus disregarding any occurrences registered before the time the bet was placed and accepted.
- 26) Bets on specific timeframes/intervals (e.g., game result between 60:00-89:59) will consider only outcomes and occurrences accumulated during the specified timeframe/interval. Settlement will not take into account any other points/goals/events tallied from other parts of the game/event/match outside the specified timeframe/interval, including stoppage/injury time, unless specified.

3. Parlays, Round Robins and System Bets

- 1) In pre-game and live betting, it is possible to combine up to twelve (12) different offers on a single ticket. Based on these twelve offers, patrons can choose their own number of singles, doubles, trebles, etc.
- 2) Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to limit the number of combinations due to what is known as outcome related contingencies, as defined in the Conditions of Agreement, Section A, Paragraph 5, Clause 4, and other factors, solely at its own discretion.
- 3) It is possible to include one or several games as “bankers” which means that the selected games/events will be included in all parlay tickets.
- 4) A “Trixie” is a combination, which includes one 3-way parlay (treble) and three 2-way parlays (doubles) from a selection of three games.
- 5) A “Patent” is a combination, which includes one 3-way parlay (treble), three 2-way parlays (doubles) and three singles from a selection of three games.
- 6) A “Yankee” is a combination, which includes one 4-way parlay (fourfold), four 3-way parlays (trebles) and six 2-way parlays (doubles) from a selection of four games.
- 7) A “Canadian” (also known as “Super Yankee”) is a combination, which includes one 5-way parlay (fivefold), five 4-way parlays (fourfolds), ten 3-way parlays (trebles) and ten 2-way parlays (doubles) from a selection of five games.
- 8) A “Heinz” is a combination, which includes one 6-way parlay (sixfold), six 5-way parlays (fivefolds), fifteen 4-way parlays (fourfolds), twenty 3-way parlays (trebles) and fifteen 2-way parlays (doubles) from a selection of six games.
- 9) A “Super Heinz” is a combination, which includes one 7-way parlay (sevenfold), seven 6-way parlays (sixfold), twenty-one 5-way parlays (fivefolds), thirty-five 4-way parlays (fourfolds), thirty-five 3-way parlays (trebles) and twenty-one 2-way parlays (doubles) from a selection of seven games.

- 10) A “Goliath” is a combination, which includes one 8-way parlay (eightfold), eight 7-way parlays (sevenfold), twenty-eight 6-way parlays (sixfold), fifty-six 5-way parlays (fivefolds), seventy 4-way parlays (fourfolds), fifty-six 3-way parlays (trebles) and twenty-eight 2-way parlays (doubles) from a selection of eight games.

For display purposes, when necessary, the second digit after the decimal point of the odds is shown as rounded up in the patron’s ticket or bet history to the nearest decimal number. The payout will, however, be made based on the actual odds multiplied by the stake, disregarding the aforementioned rounding.

4. Result Settlement

- 1) When settling results, Prairie Band Sportsbook takes reasonable steps to use information obtained firsthand (during or exactly after the event has been concluded), through TV transmissions, streaming (web-based and through other sources), and official sites. Should the required information be omitted from firsthand viewing and/or official sources, or if there is an obvious Error in the information included in the sources above, the settlement of the bet offer will be based on other public sources.

Unless a clear and verifiable Error is noted in the first official result, settlement of bets will not include any changes deriving from and/or attributable to, but not limited to: disqualifications, penalizations, protests, sub-judice results and/or successive changes to the official result after the event has been completed and a result has been announced, even preliminarily.

- 2) Settlement of markets held over more than 1 round/stage (e.g., Season Bets) will only consider amendments affecting bets which settlement has not been decided yet. Such measures must be announced by the governing body before the last scheduled round/stage will be considered. Any changes effected after this date or referring to bets which have already been settled based on events happening during the event/competition, will not be considered.
- a. Unless otherwise specified within the offer, implied by the official competition rules or announced beforehand as being the official format for that particular event, any changes from the default sport/event/competition format that result in Prairie Band Sportsbook offering odds/lines/totals which are incongruent with the revised playing format will result in the voiding of the bets affected by the format change.
 - b. Offers where the format change does not preclude the governing body from declaring a winner (e.g., Season winner), regardless of whether there will be a continuation of play or not, revised length of season/competition, etc., will be settled according to the result issued by the governing body provided the result is issued as per the timeframes listed below and is congruent to the odds/lines/totals available at time of offer publishing.
 - c. The following settlement provisions apply in such cases:
 - i. Should the governing body declare a relevant outcome within 3 months from the last game played before the interruption (be it final classification, cancellation or intentions to resume play), markets will be determined accordingly;
 - ii. In case no applicable official communication/result is issued within 3 months from the last game played before the interruption, markets will be settled in accordance with the last classification/rankings available, regardless of number of games played/current stage/phase of the competition;
 - iii. Markets which refer to whether a team/participant will reach a subsequent phase of the competition (e.g., Playoffs) will be settled as void should there be any changes to the format/number of participants scheduled to contest that particular phase or that particular phase is not played at all, unless an outcome based on the market connotations at time of bet publishing has already been determined and the change in number of applicable games bears no influence on the outcome of the offer;

- iv. Markets which odds are dependent/based on a full schedule of games being played (e.g., Over/Under Wins in the Regular Season/Points in the League) will be declared void should the number of games played end up being different than originally scheduled at the time of bet publishing, unless an outcome has already been determined and the change in number of applicable games bears no influence on the outcome of the offer.
- 3) Occurrences which have not been sanctioned and/or acknowledged by the game/match/event officials (e.g., overturned touchdowns) will not be taken into account towards the settlement of the bet. As a general rule, and unless the offer specifies otherwise, Prairie Band Sportsbook will settle offers based on the exact time that the flow of play was interrupted/resumed (as applicable) by the occurrence in question (e.g., ball went out of play for a throw-in/goal kick or crosses the line for a goal), or play is interrupted by the referee, whichever is earliest. Occurrences are only considered awarded, if the subsequent related action is performed i.e. (Offside must result in a free kick, corners must be taken, and Goal kicks must be taken). Should, the occurrence be only awarded and not taken, it will not be considered for settlement purposes.

All bet offers related to games/matches/events which do not take place at all or are awarded a result through a walk-over decision will be declared void.

- 4) In case of an abandoned event, all bet offers that have been decided prior to the abandonment and could not possibly be changed regardless of future events will be settled according to the decided outcome. Should the abandoned event not resume within 12 hours of its start time, all pending offers related to the event will be settled as void.
- 5) In case an event is abandoned and is scheduled to restart from the beginning, all bets placed before the initial game which could not be settled through the outcomes deriving from the play prior to abandonment will be declared void regardless of whether or when the game is continued.
- 6) Unless otherwise stated either in the Sport Specific Rules, Section C, or in conjunction with the bet offer, specific events forming part of tournaments/competitions which are not held, get postponed and/or are rescheduled for a time/date longer than 12 hours from the last scheduled time issued by the governing body due to bad weather, crowd trouble or similar scenarios will be declared void with the following exceptions where bets will remain valid:
- a. Events for which starting times have not been officially confirmed yet by the governing body at time of bet placement;
 - b. Events which are moved due to scheduling conflicts/TV broadcasts but remain scheduled to be played within the same gameday/game week/round (as applicable) and the change does not change the order of official games/events for any of the participants in the offer;
 - c. Events for which start times are anticipated (brought forward) but remain scheduled to be played within the same gameday/game week/round (as applicable) and, without prejudice to past-posting and similar occurrences as defined in the Conditions of Agreement, Section A, Paragraph 5, Clause 6, the change does not modify the order of official game/event for any of the participants in the offer.

For the avoidance of doubt, the definition of same gameday/game week/round is to be interpreted as the order of events as dictated by the governing body with each specific game representing a gameday/game week/round. Should this order not be upheld and the sequence of events change in a way that games against other teams get scheduled in between so much that the listed event ceases to be the next official commitment from that particular tournament/league/competition for all teams involved, that will be considered as not part of the same gameday/game week/round and offers will be declared void. The above does not apply to Season bets which will remain valid assuming the tournament/league/competition is held and decided during the season/year it refers to, regardless of any eventual date changes. In cases of Playoffs series or other series of games which are scheduled to confront 2 teams over 2 or more games, any rescheduling of a single game will be considered as being part of the same gameday regardless of the length of the rescheduling, assuming the order of Home and Away events in the series is not modified and the listed event takes place within the series. Bets will be declared void otherwise.

- 7) In cases of events which have not been completed before their natural conclusion, and a result is issued through a decision by the association not more than 12 hours from the event's start, Prairie Band Sportsbook will use the issued decision as the official result for the following bet offers: Moneyline, Tie No Bet and Double Chance. Notwithstanding that, the issued decision does not change the outcome of the bet offers at the time of the abandonment. In that case, the stakes will be refunded. All offers referring to the tallying of particular occurrences (e.g., Total Points, Spreads, etc.) will be declared void except for those the outcomes of which have been decided prior to the abandonment and could not possibly be changed regardless of future events, which will be settled according to the decided outcome.
- 8) All bet offers related to uncompleted games/matches/events where the official governing body is not previously acknowledged will be declared void unless at least 90% of the stipulated Regular/Full Time (see the General Betting Rules, Section B, Paragraph 1, Clause 1) is played. Should the game/match/event be abandoned after 90% has been completed, the settlement will be based on the current score at the time when the game/match/event was stopped.
- 9) Unless stated alongside the wagering market, settlement of bet offers, such as, but not limited to, stolen bases, errors, sacks, shots, shots on target, ball possession, assists, rebounds, etc., will be based according to the definition with which the official governing body issues the statistics. Prairie Band Sportsbook will not consider inconsistent personal interpretations of such terms.
- 10) Wagers placed on participants/teams who do not take part in an event will be declared voided. However applicable qualifying stages or similar, are to be considered part of the main event, and any participation within, is considered as validating the wager and will not be voided. Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to apply Tattersalls Rule 4, as explained in Section B, Chapter 6, on any competition and this will be stated in correlation to the bet offer and/or the relevant Sport-specific rule.
- 11) No refunds of bets will apply, even if the winning outcome of a game/match/event is a participant/outcome that has not been listed for betting purposes. On all bet offers, the patron has the ability to ask for a price on a non-listed participant/outcome. Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right, at its own discretion, to decline such requests.
- 12) In case a participant is disqualified/withheld/banned from taking part in a subsequent part/phase of an event/competition, the disqualification will be considered to have taken place at the time of the participant's removal from the event. No changes will be made to previous results, regardless of any modifications due to said actions. Bets placed after the disqualified participant last took part in the event will be declared void.
- 13) If two or more participants share the applicable finishing positions and no odds have been offered for a tied outcome, the payout will be calculated by dividing the odds by the number of participants sharing those certain positions and are settled accordingly. The payout will always be at least equal to the wager amount, except in cases of "Head-to-Heads" (see the General Betting Rules, Section B, Paragraph 2, Clause 7 and Section B, Paragraph 5, Clause.19).
- 14) In "Group Betting" (aka "Best of X"), all listed participants must start the event for bets to stand.

- 15) In “Group Betting” (aka “Best of X”), at least one participant from the selection list must successfully complete the event for bets to stand. Should that not be the case, and the governing body does not follow specific tiebreaking criteria, the bets will be declared void.
- 16) In a “Head-to-Head” between two or three participants, all listed participants must start the particular round/event to which the bet refers for bets to be considered valid.
- 17) In a “Head-to-Head” between two participants, all bets will be refunded if both participants share the same position/score or are eliminated at the same stage of the competition, unless the governing body follows specific tiebreaking procedures, in which case these bets will be deemed valid.
- 18) In a “Head-to-Head” between three participants and more than one winning outcome, the odds will be divided by the outcomes sharing the winning position, regardless of whether the net outcome is lower than the patron’s stake.
- 19) If a “Head-to-Head” is offered between different rounds/stages, all participants must take part in the upcoming round/stage for bets to be valid. Should any participant listed in the offer not take any subsequent part, bets placed from after the last time the participant was active in the event will be declared void.
- 20) Unless specifically stated, whenever the governing body deems it fit to include any necessary rounds, games, matches, or series of games/matches (e.g., Playoffs, Playouts, Postseason) following the end of the so-called Regular Season in order to determine the classification, league winners, promotion/relegation, etc., Prairie Band Sportsbook will take into account the results and outcomes deriving from these games for settlement purposes of bets referring to the final league classification, promotion, relegation, etc. For example, seasonal bets on the team winning the NHL will refer to the Stanley Cup Winners.
- 21) Offers which confront against each other the performances of two or more individuals/teams over a stipulated timeframe/competition will only be settled based on the result of the listed participants, disregarding all other participants in the same competition/event.
- 22) Unless specifically stated, all offers referring to a single player’s performance in a specific domestic league (e.g., Total Points Scored by Player X in League Y) or “Head-to-Head” bet offers involving two players’ performances in domestic leagues will not take into account those events happening during eventual Playoffs/Playouts/Postseason or any other games, or series of games, which would happen after the Regular Season. For the avoidance of doubt, Canadian teams, as pertains to NHL, NBA, MLB and MLS, are considered domestic.
- 23) Offers related to a total amount of occurrences/events scored/tallied by a particular team, either in a single team performance in a specific league (e.g., Total Runs Scored by Team X), “Head-to-Head” bet offers involving two teams’ performances in leagues (e.g., Most Penalty Minutes in UK Premier League - Team Y vs Team Z), or a cumulative league performance (e.g., Team to receive Most Penalties in NHL), will not take into account those events happening during eventual Playoffs/Playouts/Postseason or any other games, or series of games, which would happen after the so-called Regular Season, unless otherwise specified.
- 24) In a single player performance bet offer in a specific league (e.g., Total Runs Scored by Player X in MLB) or “Head-to-Head” bet offers involving two players’ performances in leagues, unless an outcome has already been achieved, stakes will be refunded should any of the following occurrences happen to any relevant participant: (i) the participant is not part of the gameday line up or squad for the team/club they are eligible for at time of bet placement in 50% or more of the remaining applicable games for any reason, (ii) the participant does not take part in at least another game after the bet has been placed, or (iii) the participant totals the same amount as the other player, unless a tie/draw option has been offered. Other sports-specific conditions may apply, please refer to the Sport Specific Rules, Section C.

- 25) In a single player performance bet offer in a specific event (e.g., Total Runs by Player X in Game 1 of World Series) or “Head-to-Head” bet offers involving two players’ performances in specific events, should any of the following occurrences happen to either of the participants in the selection list, the bets will be considered void: (i) the participant does not take part at all in the event (ii) the participant does not take part in at least another game after the bet has been placed, or (iii) the participant totals the same amount as the other participant, unless a draw/tie option has been offered.
- 26) During specific events Prairie Band Sportsbook might decide to offer for betting a reduced selection of participants and might also include betting options such as “any other”, “the field”, or similar. This option includes all unlisted participants except for the ones mentioned specifically as available.
- 27) Offers that make specific reference to a participant’s/participants’ performance(s) in a particular event (e.g., Player X vs The Field) are to be considered void if the mentioned participant(s) do(es) not take part in the competition.
- 28) Any form of a qualification ahead of the main event is considered to be a valid part of that competition. Thus, any participant who is eliminated at the qualification stage will be considered losing to anyone that is pre-qualified or is successful in the qualification part.
- 29) Bet offers which originally require participant(s) to compete in two or more stages/legs to advance into a subsequent phase/round of a competition will remain valid regardless of any postponement/ movement of the actual game dates, assuming the game(s) actually takes place within the frame of the competition.
- 30) A bet on a “To Qualify” market originally requiring just one stage/leg to advance to a subsequent phase/round of a competition (including any eventual prolongations/additional games, e.g., replays) will be declared void if a game is not decided within more than 12 hours of its supposed start time.
- 31) Should an event be moved from its originally announced venue and/or have its playing surface changed, this will not be treated as a cause for the offers to be voided unless (i) the Sport Specific Rules dictate such, and/or (ii) the new location in which the event takes place is the habitual “home” stadium, field, pitch, court, ice, etc. of either participant involved in the game, except as dictated below. As a general principle, Prairie Band Sportsbook will refer to the Home Team (host) and the Away Team (visitor) in accordance with the definition issued by the governing body for that particular game/competition. Bets on games played on so-called “Neutral” fields, pitches, courts, stadiums, ice, etc. will remain valid regardless of whether such information has been detailed in the bet offer and/or the positioning of the teams on the betting board/display. In those cases where there is a discrepancy between the positioning of the teams/participants on the official website and their placement on the Site, and such discrepancy causes a significant effect on the odds of the game/match/competition, Prairie Band Sportsbook will void the affected bets. Such eventuality is contemplated only in cases where the discrepancy has a material and visible effect on the odds. For example, in cases of swapped Home and Away Teams in an Ice Hockey game, Prairie Band Sportsbook will void the bets. Nevertheless, Prairie Band Sportsbook will consider valid bets placed on events where the so-called home-field advantage is not considered and in cases of neutral venues. Examples of such cases include, but are not limited to, tennis tournaments, MMA fights, singles competitions in general, or specific events such as the final/late stages of team competitions being held in pre-established venues, like the Super Bowl, the NCAA Final 4 or the Italian Football Cup Final, even if the location can be deemed as a potential customary “Home” pitch for either of the teams involved. In such cases, events will be considered as being played in neutral venues and all bets stand regardless of the positioning of the teams/participants on the official website and their placement on the Site.

- 32) Information referring to gender of the teams, age groups and youth teams, as well as various definitions of reserve teams (e.g., B and C teams), is to be treated as supplementary information. The inclusion (or lack of) and correctness of such information will not be treated as sufficient cause for the voiding of the offers related to the game/match/event, provided this does not cause an obvious inconsistency in odds offered.
- 33) Although Prairie Band Sportsbook takes reasonable precautions to assure an accurate rendition of all components involved in a bet offer, certain denominations could be represented differently due to different interpretations deriving from adaptations into another language. Such linguistic incongruence will not be treated as sufficient cause for the voiding of the offers related to the game/match/event, to the extent that it does not create confusion with other participants or cause an obvious inconsistency in odds offered. The same applies for denominations referring to events, team names, sponsor names, etc.
- 34) In case of bets where there is reference to timeframes, they should be interpreted in the following way: “within the first 30 minutes” will include anything happening until 0 hours 29 minutes and 59 seconds; “between 10 to 20 minutes” will include anything happening from 10 minutes and 0 seconds until 19 minutes and 59 seconds, etc.
- 35) Unless listed either in conjunction with the bet offer or in the Sport Specific Rules, Section C, bets referring to game/event/match duration which include non-full integer digits (e.g., 88.5 minutes or X.5 rounds) require the full completion of the full integer of the listed duration for them to be considered won. For example, a bet on Over/Under 88.5 minutes in a Tennis match will be settled as Over only if at least 89 full minutes are completed.
- 36) Prairie Band Sportsbook acknowledges that some bets might require the rounding-up of percentages, units or other criteria which are decisive for the settlement of the bet. Should that be the case, Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to adjust and settle accordingly.
- 37) Any reference to goals scored by specific players will not count if they are defined as ‘own goals’ (scored in their own goals) unless otherwise stated.
- 38) Any reference to confederation, nationality or similar will be subject to the definition by the governing body.
- 39) Any medals won by a team/nation per competition will count as one (1) single medal regardless of the number of team members (e.g., Olympic gymnastics team all-around gold medal).
- 40) Offers referring to individual player performances over a particular period/tournament (example: Total Goals Scored by Player X during the World Cup) or confronting performances from 2 individual players during the course of the season (example: Which of Player X or Player Y will score most goals during the season), require all listed individuals to be an active participant in at least one more event applicable for the offer after bet acceptance for bets to stand.
- 41) Offers on whether certain individuals will be occupying a specified position/title/job on a certain date (e.g., Player or Coach to still be with Team Y on Date Z) refer to the individual in question to hold (or alternatively to be appointed in) the listed position uninterrupted between the time the bet is placed and the specified deadline. Should the individual for any reason whatsoever leave the position before the specified deadline, the outcome of the bet will be considered as not having happened, even in cases where the individual is re-appointed/signed again in that same position/title/job and even if on the specified deadline the individual is occupying once more that same position/title/job to which the bet refers. Settlements will also take into account players signed on loan deals.

- 42) Any bets referring to “breaking” of records require the listed occurrence to be fully accomplished. Equaling the record will not be considered as having fully accomplished the feat. Only the listed occurrence will count for settlement purposes.

5. Tattersalls Rule 4

- 1) In the event of one non-runner or one non-participant, the odds on the remaining runners or remaining participants are reduced in accordance with the so-called Tattersalls Rule 4.

Section C. Sport Specific Rules

1. American Football (“Football”)

- 1) Unless stated otherwise, all bets on Football are determined on the basis of the result after any overtime.
- 2) All offers will only be considered valid should there be less than 5 minutes of scheduled play left in the 4th Quarter/2nd Half, as applicable. Exceptions will be made for those outcomes which have been decided prior to early abandonment and could not possibly be changed regardless of future events, which will be settled according to the decided outcome.
- 3) Offers referring to individual player performances in a single game (e.g., Total Passing Yards Thrown by Player X) or relative performance of 2 individual players during the course of a game (e.g., Will Player X or Player Y throw most Passing Yards) require all listed individuals to participate in at least one more play in the applicable game, after bet acceptance, for the bet(s) to stand.
- 4) Unless specifically stated or implied in the offer, settlement of Season long (or “future”) bets will be based on the classifications, definitions and tiebreaking rules as per NFL.com or the official website of the competition (as applicable).
- 5) Unless otherwise specified, a typical NFL/NCAA week/round schedule is considered starting on a Thursday through the following Wednesday, as per local stadium time. Any events/offers not completed within the designated or specified time period will be settled as void, except for those offers in which the outcomes have already been decided and could not possibly be changed regardless of future events, which will be settled according to the decided outcome. Bets referring to events which have been rescheduled within the same week/round will remain valid as long as such events are played within the Thursday to Wednesday time period described above.
- 6) Gameday/Weekly props are offers on the performance or outcome of a group of teams or individual player performances for games/events over a specified time period (week/round/day/game) (e.g., Week 3 - Total Points Scored in the AFC, Week 7 - Highest Scoring team in the NFL, Week 9 - the Player with the most passing yards, etc.). All applicable game/matches/events (including any rescheduled games that are played within the same game week) must be completed and validated for the specified week/gameday/round for bets to stand except for those the outcomes which have been decided prior to the abandonment or change in schedule, and could not possibly be changed regardless of future events, which will be settled according to the decided outcome. In addition, offers referring to the performance of specified players require that all the specified players participate in at least one more play in the applicable game, after bet acceptance, for bets to stand.
- 7) Season long bets, including results of Playoff games or other similar events, or particular team or player performance will remain valid regardless of possible player trades, team movements, name changes, changes of season length or playoff format changes during any point in the season.
- 8) Offers referring to individual player performance (e.g., Total Passing Yards by Player X during the Playoffs) or relative performance of 2 individual players over a particular period/tournament/season/single game (e.g., Will Player X or Player Y score most Touchdowns during the Regular Season) require that all listed individuals must be an active participant in at least one more game applicable for the offer after bet acceptance for bets to stand. Any bets placed after any news which could potentially reduce the number of markets a listed player is eligible to participate within the competition (e.g., injury/transfer/trade news), and theoretically alter the odds in favor of any particular outcome without the odds having been adjusted to reflect the current state of the bet, will be declared void.

- 9) Bets on Double Result (e.g., “Half Time/Full Time” which predict the outcome at Half Time combined with the result at the end of the 4th Quarter) will not take into account any outcomes in overtime (if applicable).
- 10) First/Next Offensive Play markets are settled based on the first/next offensive play from scrimmage (as applicable), excluding penalties. Should a kick-off be returned for a touchdown, bets will be settled with the outcome of the subsequent kick-off. For settlement purposes, incomplete/intercepted passes, Quarterback sacks or fumbles will be considered as “Pass Play” unless the Quarterback has passed the line of scrimmage, at which point it would be considered as “Run Play”. Fumbles on exchanges to a running back will be considered as “Run Play”.
- 11) Settlement on offers referring to “Offensive Yards” will be based on the net number of yards including any sack yardage lost. For the avoidance of doubt, the calculation is completed by adding the relevant passing and receiving yards and subtracting the number of yards lost to sacks from the total.
- 12) Offers referring to any team scoring a specified successive number of times unanswered will consider scorings tallied during eventual overtime but excludes any PATs (points after Touchdowns or 2-point conversions).
- 13) “Team to call first/next Timeout” offers will not take into consideration any timeouts lost through any other means such as failed challenges, coaches challenges and/or injuries for settlement purposes.
- 14) Settlement on all penalty offers will be based on the penalty being accepted. Declined penalties do not count.
- 15) Bets referring to the outcome of a particular drive will be settled as void in case of an incomplete drive. In cases where Team A has the ball and fumbles with the ball being recovered by Team B who successively fumbles it back to Team A, the outcome will be settled as a “Turnover”. Turnover on Downs (failed 4th Down attempt) will also be considered as a “Turnover”. Should a punt be fumbled by the receiving team and subsequently recovered by the kicking team, bets will be settled as a “Punt”.
- 16) Offers on “if a 1st Down will be made” refer only to the team currently in possession and achieving such accomplishment. Market will be settled as “YES” should a new set of “Downs” be achieved either by Run, Pass (including cases where a Touchdown is scored as a result) or an Automatic 1st Down Penalty. “Safety”, “Field Goal” (regardless of whether the Field Goal being scored or not), fumbles or any change in possession will settle the offer as “NO”. Any Down replayed due to non-automatic penalties will not be considered for settlement purposes unless committed with 5 yards or less to go.
- 17) Settlement on which team will gain most Passing/Rushing yards will be based on the gross number of yards thrown/run, including any negative yardage for rushing.
- 18) For settlement purposes, bets on Touchdown scorers require the listed player to be part of the active roster for that game. Stakes on players which are not on the active roster will be refunded. In cases of “passing Touchdowns” only the player who catches the pass will be considered as the Touchdown scorer.
- 19) Player props and other stats-based offers will be settled according to the official game reports as published after the game by the governing body.
- 20) Unless otherwise specified in conjunction with the bet offer, bets on outcomes related to 2nd Half will only take into consideration points and occurrences tallied/obtained during the regular game period and will not consider any points and occurrences tallied/obtained during overtime.

- 21) Offers referring to tackles made, will be settled according to tackles made on regular defensive plays only. This will be determined by the final defensive statistics in the official gamebook.

2. Athletics (Track & Field)

- 1) Unless otherwise stated, all bets on Athletics are determined on the basis of the result after the final stage of that competition. If none of the listed participants takes part in the final stage, all bets will be void, unless the governing body follows specific tiebreaking procedures, in which case these will be deemed valid.
- 2) All bet offers will be settled based on the first official result being presented. However, Prairie Band Sportsbook will take into account and settle/re-settle accordingly following any changes to the official result issued within 24 hours after the event has taken place. For such eventuality to be considered, a protest must be attributable to incidents happening exclusively during the event, such as a line infringement, pushes or a false handover in a relay race, etc. No doping cases will be considered. The result available at the end of the 24 hours will be deemed as binding regardless of any further protests, changes to the official result, etc.
- 3) If two or more participants take part in different heats during a competition, all Head-To-Head-offers between them will be considered void, unless there is a later stage in the competition that at least one of them qualifies for.
- 4) A participant that is disqualified due to infringement of the start procedure (false start) will be deemed as having taken part in the event.
- 5) Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to apply Tattersalls Rule 4, in cases of non-starters in any athletics events.

3. Australian (Aussie) Rules Football

- 1) Unless explicitly stated, should a match or a specified period (ex. 1st Half, 3rd Quarter, etc.) end in a draw, all bets will be settled according to the dead heat rule (Section B, Paragraph 5, Clause 14), where the payout would be calculated after the odds are divided and then multiplied by the stake, regardless of whether the net payout is lower than the patron's stake.
- 2) Unless otherwise stated, all bets referring to matches will be settled with the result at the end of 4th Quarter (normal time).
- 3) For any offer referring to individual player performances in a single match (e.g., Total Points Scored by Player X) or stakes will be refunded, if the player is not in the starting 22. For any offer between two players (head-to-head matchups) stakes will be refunded if either player is not in the starting 22.
- 4) First Goalscorer in the match/1st Quarter - Bets will be voided on players who are not in the starting 21. Bets on First Goalscorer in the match do not require the goal to be scored in the 1st Quarter. Should no goal be scored in the listed period all bets will be settled as void, unless an option for "no goal" has been offered.
- 5) First Goalscorer in the 2nd, 3rd or 4th Quarter - All bets stand regardless of the player's participation (or lack thereof) in the listed Quarter and the match. Should no goal be scored in the listed quarter all bets will be settled as void.
- 6) "Wire-to-Wire" betting refers to which team (if any) is leading the match at the end of each quarter.

- 7) Should any replay/extra matches be required to determine any position in the classification, league winners, etc., the outcomes deriving from these replays/extra matches will be used for the settlement of the respective bet offer.
- 8) For match betting on a Grand Final, the betting is specific to the upcoming match to be played, or the current match, in the case of live betting. Bets will not carry over to any replay and a new market will be added for any subsequent matches.
- 9) When settling offers which relate to the performances of two or more individuals/teams over a stipulated timeframe/competition, stages of elimination within the “Finals” will count for the settlement. Should two teams be eliminated at the same stage, the team that finished highest on the AFL ladder at the conclusion of the Regular Season will be considered as having achieved a better position.
- 10) All bets stand, regardless of change of venue.
- 11) Offers referring to individual player performances (e.g., Total Points Scored by Player X during the Playoffs) or relative performance of 2 individual players over a particular period/tournament/season (e.g., Will Player X or Player Y score the most points during the Regular Season) require that all listed individuals must be an active participant in at least one more event applicable for the offer after bet acceptance for bets to stand. Bets placed after any news which can potentially reduce the number of events any listed player is eligible for within the competition (e.g., injury/transfer/trade news), and theoretically alter the odds in favor of any particular outcome without the odds having been adjusted to reflect the current state of the bet, will be declared void.
- 12) For any “time of goal” offer (example: time of first goal) stoppages are not included. All bets are settled according to the match timeline on the official AFL website (no stoppages, time on is included, clock counts upward).
- 13) For all highest scoring quarter offers, the “Same amount” outcome settles on any 2 (or more) quarters being equal highest.
- 14) For all season offers, that are settled at the conclusion of the regular season, the official ladder position is used as the determining factor (i.e., Percentage determines tied positions)
- 15) Similarly, for the “Team(s) with the Most Losses” offer, in the event of two or more teams recording the same number of losses, the winner will be determined as the team with the lower ladder position (i.e., Percentage determines tied positions).

4. Baseball

- 1) Unless otherwise stated, bets on Baseball are determined on the basis of the result after any eventual extra innings, and regardless of the number of innings played, as declared by the respective organizing body. In the rare case of a tie after the extra innings, match bets will be settled as void.
- 2) A bet is declared void on a cancelled or postponed game which has not started, or in the case of a result not having been issued within twelve hours of the scheduled start time.
- 3) In the event of a shortened game, Moneyline and other offers which are determined on the outcome or end of the game including Spreads and Totals (over/under) require a minimum number of innings be played, as per the rules of the governing body, for bets to stand. If a game ends with less than the minimum required number of innings played, bets will be settled as void. All other offers which could reasonably be settled (e.g., "Over/Under", "Runline" and "Odd/Even") will be settled according to the result after the extra innings.

- 4) With the exception of the Moneyline, all markets including "Runline", "Over/Under", and "Odd/Even" require all scheduled innings to be completed for bets to stand. This excludes when the home team is winning, and then the required number of innings is one half less. This applies to all offers except those where the outcome has been decided prior to the abandonment and could not possibly be changed regardless of future events. These will be settled according to the decided outcome.
- 5) With the exception of those offers where the start/participation of the listed pitcher(s) is specifically required for the market to be deemed valid, (e.g., Listed Pitcher Moneyline), whoever is chosen to be the starting pitcher of either team has no relevance on how offers are settled.
- 6) For settlement purposes, "First Half" bets refer to the outcome of the first 5 innings. All 5 innings must be completed for the bets to stand, except for those offers in which the outcome has been decided prior to abandonment and could not possibly be changed regardless of future events, which will be settled according to the decided outcome. For games played under a scheduled, shortened format, the first half innings will be shortened accordingly. For example, "first half" bets in a 7 innings game refer to outcomes deriving from the first 4 innings.
- 7) Live Betting offers referring to individual player performances in a single match (e.g., Total Hits by Player X) or relative performance of 2 individual players during the course of a match (e.g., Will Player X or Player Y have the most Hits) require all listed individuals to participate in at least one more play in the match, after bet acceptance for bets to stand. All Pre-Match markets involving hitters require for the player to be listed as in the starting line-up, and to have at least one plate appearance. Those involving pitchers require the Player to throw at least one pitch, for bets to stand. Offers referring to one or more players' performance in a given match, require that all listed players are included in the starting lineup, for bets to stand.
- 8) Unless specifically stated or implied in the offer, settlement of Season long bets, Tournament bets or Playoff Totals will be based as per the classifications, definitions and tiebreaking rules as per MLB.com, or the official website of the competition (as applicable). Unless otherwise stated, cumulative amounts of such bets will include eventual prolongations (e.g., extra innings). "Head-to-Head" and "Over/Under" bets involving one or more players' performance in the tournament are considered valid given that all listed players take part in the tournament at some stage for bets to stand.
- 9) Offers referring to individual player performances (e.g., Total Runs Scored by Player X during the Playoffs) or relative performances of 2 individual players over a particular period/tournament/season/game (e.g., Will Player X or Player Y record the most hits during the Regular Season) require that all listed individuals must be an active participant in at least one more game for the bets to stand. Bets placed after any news which can potentially reduce the number of events any listed player is eligible for within the competition (e.g., injury/transfer/trade news), and theoretically alter the odds in favor of any particular outcome without the odds having been adjusted to reflect the current state of the bet, will be declared void.
- 10) Season long bets, regardless of whether these include outcomes resulting during Playoffs or otherwise, as well as offers referring to particular teams or player performances, will remain valid regardless of possible player trades, team movements, name changes, change in season length or playoff format changes during any point in the season.
- 11) Bets on the outcome of a particular period (e.g., Inning X) or occurrences achieved during a time-limited period require the specified period to be completed with the exception of those offers the outcome of which is already determined before any interruption and/or any further continuance of play could not possibly produce a different outcome to the offers which will be settled accordingly. For settlement purposes, any inning (including extra innings) which does not require the Home Team to bat further, or at all, is considered to have been naturally concluded and all bets referring to the inning (e.g., Result of Inning X, Runline (Spread) of Inning X, Over/Under (Total) Runs or Hits in Inning X) stand with the exception of those which specifically refer to the single performance of the Home Team within the specified inning (e.g., Over/Under (Total) Runs scored by the Home Team in Inning X) which will be settled as void should the Home Team not bat at all during the specified inning.

- 12) During certain events Prairie Band Sportsbook might decide to offer markets related to the outcome of a series of consecutive Regular Season matches playing between the listed teams during the specified timeframes. Settlement will include outcomes deriving from any doubleheaders provided these are played within the specified timeframe. In cases where no tie outcome has been made available for betting, bets will be settled as void should both of the listed teams win the same number of games. All scheduled games must be completed as per the rules of the governing body for bets to stand except for those the outcomes which have been decided prior to the abandonment and could not possibly be changed regardless of future events, which will be settled according to the decided outcome.
- 13) Offers which confront or tally outcome and occurrences obtained/achieved by teams or players taking part in different games not playing each other (e.g., Team to score most runs in their respective game) require that all applicable games are completed as per the rules of the governing body for bets to stand except for those the outcomes which have been decided prior to the abandonment and could not possibly be changed regardless of future events, which will be settled according to the decided outcome. In cases where no tie outcome has been made available for betting, bets will be settled as void should both of the listed teams/participants obtain/achieve the same amount.
- 14) Series winner results are settled according to which team wins the most games in the series of games (including any doubleheaders) played within the listed timeframe. Bets are void if teams win the same number of games. All scheduled games must be completed as per the rules of the governing body for bets to stand except for outcomes which have been decided prior to the abandonment and could not possibly be changed regardless of future events, which will be settled according to the decided outcome.

5. Basketball

- 1) All bets on Basketball are determined on the basis of the final result including overtime, unless otherwise stated.
- 2) Moneyline bets on ties which are decided over two or more matchups (or games) will have the "Including Overtime" offer voided in case the game ends in a tie and no further activity is played in that particular game.
- 3) In multiple game series, all points earned during any overtime period will count toward the final settlement of that particular game.
- 4) Offers referring to individual player performances in a single game (e.g., Total Points Scored by Player X) or relative performance of 2 individual players during the course of a game (e.g., Will Player X or Player Y make the most Rebounds) require all listed individuals to participate in at least one more play in the game after bet acceptance, for bets to stand.
- 5) All bets referring to aggregated league or tournament totals (such as Points, Rebounds, Assists, etc.) will be settled based on official statistics by the governing body. Unless otherwise stated, cumulative amounts of such bets will include prolongations (e.g., overtime).

- 6) All NBA and NCAA offers will only be considered valid should there be less than 5 minutes of scheduled play left in the 4th Quarter/2nd Half, as applicable. Exceptions will be made for outcomes which have been decided prior to abandonment and could not possibly be changed regardless of future events, which will be settled according to the decided outcome.
- 7) Unless specifically stated or implied in the bet offer, settlement of Season long bets will be based as per the classifications, definitions and tiebreaking rules of the NBA.com, or the official website of the competition (as applicable).
- 8) Season long bets, regardless of whether these include outcomes resulted during Playoffs or otherwise, as well as offers referring to particular teams or player performances will remain valid regardless of potential player trades, team movements, name changes, season length or playoff format changes during any point in the season.
- 9) Offers referring to individual player performances (e.g., Total Points Scored by Player X during the Playoffs) or relative performance of 2 individual players over a particular game/period/tournament/season (e.g., Which Player X or Player Y make the most rebounds during the Regular Season) require that all listed individuals must be an active participant in at least one more game applicable to the offer, after bet acceptance, for bets to stand. Bets placed after any news which can potentially reduce the number of events any listed player is eligible for within the competition (e.g., injury/transfer/trade news), and theoretically alter the odds in favor of any particular outcome without the odds having been adjusted to reflect the current state of the bet, will be declared void.
- 10) Bets on Double Result (i.e., predicting the outcome at Half Time combined with the result at the end of the 4th Quarter) will include any outcomes from overtime.
- 11) Unless otherwise specified in conjunction with the bet offer, bets on outcomes relating to 2nd Half will only include points and occurrences tallied/obtained during the specified timeframe and will not include any points and occurrences tallied/obtained during eventual overtime.
- 12) For settlement purposes a “double-double” is considered to have occurred should the player register 10 or more in at least 2 of these categories in a single game (including overtime): Points Scored, Any Rebounds Won, Assists, Steals and/or Blocked Shots. A “triple-double” is considered to have occurred should the player register 10 or more in at least 3 of the listed categories in a single game (including overtime).
- 13) For 3 x 3 basketball: “Over/Under” and "Handicap" offers on unfinished games the outcome of which is already determined before the interruption of play and/or where any further continuance of play could not possibly produce a different outcome to offers, will be settled based on the result achieved until the interruption. For the calculation of these settlements, the minimum amount of occurrences, which should have been needed to bring the offer to the natural conclusion, will be added as necessary depending on the format of the game. Should this calculation produce a situation where no possible alterations could affect the outcome of the offer, this will be settled as such. See examples from the tennis-section for reference.

6. Beach Volleyball

- 1) All bets will remain valid provided the match/offer is played within the tournament framework regardless of any changes in schedule, conditions, etc.

- 2) “Match” bet offers are based on the general principle of tournament progress or tournament win, depending on the phase of the competition to which the match refers. The team progressing to the next round or winning the tournament is to be considered the winner of the bet regardless of match duration, withdrawals, disqualifications, etc. These bets require at least one set to be completed for bets to stand.
- 3) “Over/Under” offers on unfinished matches/events the outcome of which is already determined before the interruption and/or any further continuance of play could not possibly produce a different outcome to the offers will be settled based on the result achieved until the interruption. For the calculation of these settlements, the minimum number of occurrences which should have been needed to bring the offer to the natural conclusion will be added as necessary depending on the number of sets which the match is scheduled for. Should this calculation produce a situation where no possible variations could affect the outcome of the offer, this will be settled as such. See examples from the Tennis section for reference.
- 4) “Handicap” or “Spread” offers require all scheduled sets to be completed for bets to stand except in those events the outcome of which is already determined before the interruption and/or any further continuance of play could not possibly produce a different outcome to the offers which will be settled accordingly. See examples from the Tennis section for reference.
- 5) All “Correct Score” and “Odd/Even” offers, and those offers which refer to the winner of a particular period in the match (e.g., “Team to win the first set”), require the relevant part of the match to be completed.

7. Boxing

- 1) All offers will be settled according to the official result of the relevant governing body immediately as declared by the ring announcer at the end of the fight. No amendments made to the official result after being first announced will be taken into consideration except for those which the governing body adopts to rectify clear cases of human errors by the ring announcer.
- 2) For settlement purposes, if the match is interrupted for any reason in between rounds, e.g., retirement before the start of a round, disqualification, or failure to answer the bell, the fight will be deemed to have finished at the end of the previous round. For all the “To go the Distance” offers, to be settled as yes, the official scheduled number of rounds, must be fully completed. If a technical decision is issued before the end of the scheduled number of rounds, all bets will be settled as a win by decision.
- 3) Offers on fights declared as a “No Contest” or “Technical draw” (prior to the completion of 4 full rounds) will be settled as void, except for those offers where the outcome has been decided prior to the decision and could not possibly be changed regardless of future events, will be settled according to the decided outcome.
- 4) If for any reason, the number of rounds in a fight is changed between the time of bet acceptance and the actual fight, offers which make specific reference to rounds, such as “Round betting”, “Group of Rounds”, “Over/Under”, “Winning Method” and “To go the distance”, will be declared void.
- 5) For settlement purposes, betting on rounds or groups of rounds refers to a fighter to win by KO (Knockout), TKO (Technical Knockout), or disqualification during that round or group of rounds. If for any reason, a points decision is awarded before the full number of scheduled rounds is completed (Technical Decision), offers such as “Alternate Round Betting”, “Alternate Group of rounds”, “Over/under”, and “To go the distance” will be declared void, unless the outcome is already determined.

- 6) Bets referring to round/fight duration represents the actual time passed in the round/fight, as applicable, depending on the scheduled round/fight duration. For example, a bet on Over 4.5 Total Rounds in a Boxing fight will be settled as Over once a minute and a half in the 5th Round has passed.
- 7) Any confirmed fight must be completed by 23:59 local time of the following day for bets to stand. Any changes in venue or location will not be deemed valid grounds for voiding offers.
- 8) In offers where a draw/tie is possible and odds have not been offered for such outcome, bets will be settled as void should the official result be declared as such. For settlement purposes, fights in which the outcome is declared as either a “Majority draw” or a “Split draw” are to be considered as a drawn/tied outcome and offers will be settled accordingly.
- 9) Settlement of statistics-based offers such as “Boxer X to be knocked down” or similar will be settled based on the results declared by the referee.

8. Cricket

a) General Cricket Rules

- 1) In cases where no odds have been offered for a tie and the match/offer ends in a tie, bets would be settled according to the dead heat rule, where the payout would be calculated after the odds are divided and multiplied by the stake, regardless of whether the net payout is lower than the patron’s stake. In competitions where other means are used to determine a winner after a tie (e.g., “Bowl-out” or “Super Over”) then offers will be settled based on the result after such prolongations are completed. The only exception to this rule is for “Match Odds” betting in Test/First Class/3, 4 or 5 day matches where in the event of a tie both teams have completed two innings each and have scored exactly the same bets on “Match Odds” will be settled as void.
- 2) For “Total Runs Over X” (Over/Under & Odd/Even) betting, “extras” and “penalty runs” (as per match scorecards) are included for settlement purposes. Bets will be void if the over is not completed unless a result has already been determined or the over has reached its “natural conclusion” (e.g., innings end/declaration). The market refers only to the listed over (e.g., “5th over” refers to over number 5, i.e., the over directly following over number 4).
- 3) For “Total Runs Delivery X” (Over/Under & Odd/Even) betting, “extras” (but not “penalty runs”) as per match scorecard are included for settlement purposes. Deliveries are counted from the start of the over, and additional deliveries (resulting from “extras”) will be counted consecutively and separately (e.g., if delivery 1 is a wide, the next ball is considered delivery 2).
- 4) For “Boundary Over X” (Yes/No) betting, any instance of the ball striking or clearing the boundary regardless of whether the ball comes off the bat shall be deemed a boundary. This includes wides, byes, leg byes & overthrows (e.g., any instance of an in play ball that hits or clears the boundary shall be settled as yes for that over). 4 runs that are “all run” between the wicket shall not be counted as a boundary. Bets will be void if the over is not completed unless a result has already been determined or the over has reached its “natural conclusion” (e.g., innings end, declaration). The market refers only to the listed over (e.g., “5th Over” refers to over number 5, i.e., the over directly following over number 4).
- 5) For “Wicket Over X” (Yes/No) betting, the over must be completed for bets to stand, unless a wicket has already fallen or the innings reaches its natural conclusion (e.g., innings end, declaration).

- 6) For “Total Wides” (Over/Under) betting, settlement will be based on the “Runs” scored from “Wides” and not the number of “Wides” bowled, e.g., if a single wide delivery reaches the boundary, it shall count as 5 total wides.
- 7) For “Method of Dismissal” betting, bets will be void if either player retires due to injury or any other reason before the wicket falls or there are no further wickets.
- 8) For “Most Run Outs” betting, settlement will be based on the batting team not the fielding team, (e.g., run outs count for the team of the player that is dismissed).
- 9) For “Odd/Even” betting, a ball must be bowled for bets to stand.
- 10) For any betting involving “ducks”, a “duck” is defined as when a player is dismissed for a score of zero runs. Any player not-out for zero runs is not considered a duck.
- 11) For “Maiden in Match” betting, a maiden is considered any over bowled with no runs scored. Only completed overs with zero runs count. A minimum of 1 over must be bowled for bets to stand. For settlement purposes, leg-byes and byes are not applied to this bet offer, as per the match scorecard.
- 12) For all “4s” betting including but not limited to total 4s, most 4s & player’s total 4s; any “all run” 4s will not count towards the total. Over-throws that reach the boundary and are awarded to the batsman will be counted. No-balls that reach the boundary off the bat and are awarded to the batsman will be counted. Leg-byes & byes that reach the boundary are not included. Wides that reach the boundary are not included.
- 13) Penalty runs awarded will be counted towards the over, interval and innings for settlement purposes, as per match scorecard. If penalty runs are not awarded to a specific over, they will only count towards innings runs.

b) Player Cricket Rules

- 1) “Top Run Scorer” and “Top Wicket Taker” bets (including all variants by “Home Team”, Away Team”, “1st Innings” & “2nd Innings”) placed on any player not in the starting 11 will be declared void. Bets on players who are selected but do not bat or field will be settled as losers. In the event of a tie, dead heat rules as explained in the Sport Specific Rules, Section C, Paragraph 9(a).1, will apply.
 - a) Additionally, for all limited overs matches the following will apply. Betting requires a minimum of 20 overs to be bowled per innings of a One Day match, unless a team is all-out or the match is completed, or a minimum of 5 overs to be bowled per innings of a Twenty 20 match, T10 or Hundred match unless a team is all-out, or the match is completed.
 - b) Additionally, for all Test matches & 4/5 day matches the following will apply. Betting requires 50 overs to be completed for bets to stand, unless the innings has reached its natural conclusion (including “Innings declared”).
 - c) All “Top Wicket Taker” bets will be settled solely on the number of wickets taken regardless of the number of runs conceded.
 - d) All “Top Wicket Taker” bets will be void if no wicket is taken by any bowler in that innings.
 - e) This rule excludes any Tournament or Series market as covered in the Sport Specific Rules, Section C, Paragraph 9(e).5.
- 2) “Man of the Match/ Player of the Match” bets placed on any player not in the starting 11 will be declared void. Bets on players who are selected but do not bat or bowl will be settled as losers. In the event of a tie, dead heat rules will apply as explained in the Sport Specific Rules, Section C, Paragraph 9(a).1.

- 3) “Next Man Out” & “First Batsman Dismissed” bets will be settled as void if either player retires due to injury or any other reason before the wicket falls or if there are no further wickets. Both named batsmen must be batting at the fall of the nominated wicket for bets to stand.
- 4) “Most Runs” (2-way & 3-way) matchups require that both/all players reach the batting crease while a ball is bowled, though it is not necessary they face a ball, nor must the quoted players have batted together, otherwise bets will be void. In the event of a tie, if no draw price was offered, dead heat rules will apply as explained in the Sport Specific Rules, Section C, Paragraph 9(a).1.
- 5) “Most Wickets” (2-way & 3-way) matchups require that both/all players bowl at least 1 ball for bets to stand. In the event of a tie, if no draw price was offered, dead heat rules will apply as explained in the Sport Specific Rules, Section C, Para 9(a).1.
- 6) “Player Performance” bets placed on any player not in the starting 11 will be declared void. Settlement is based on the following points-based scoring system:
 - 1 point per run scored (batsman only);
 - 10 points per catch taken (fielder or wicket keeper only);
 - 20 points per wicket (bowler only);
 - 25 points per stumping (wicket keeper only).

Additionally, for all limited overs matches, all bets will be declared as void should the number of overs be reduced due to weather (or any other reason) from the standard scheduled number of overs in a Twenty 20 match or any other limited overs match. If the outcome of the offers is already decided before the interruption and no further play would possibly change the outcome of the bets, the offers will be settled accordingly.

- 7) “Player to take 5 or more Wickets/Player’s Total Wickets/Player to take a wicket” bets placed on any player not in the starting 11 will be declared void. Bets will also be void if the player does not bowl a ball.
- 8) “Player to take make a Duck” (Yes/No) bets require that the player reaches the batting crease while a ball is bowled, though it is not necessary they face a ball.
- 9) For “Player to score Fastest 50/Century” betting, settlement is based on the least number of balls faced to reach the milestone (either 50 runs or 100 runs). In the event of a tie, dead heat rules will apply as explained in the Sport Specific Rules, Section C, Paragraph 9(a).1.
- 10) For “Race to X Runs” bets, both players must open the batting for bets to stand. “Player’s Total Runs/Player’s Total 4s/Player’s Total 6s” (Over/Under) betting requires that the player reach the batting crease while a ball is bowled, though it is not necessary they face a ball. In cases where a batsman’s innings is ended by weather or bad light, all bets where a result has not been determined will be declared void. A result is deemed to have been determined if a batsman has passed the run total at which the bet was accepted, if a batsman has been dismissed or if an innings completed/declaration made. For example, if a batsman’s score stands at 50 “Not-Out” when a game or innings is terminated due to bad light or rain, all bets on 50.5 runs will be voided unless the game has reached its natural conclusion. However, all bets on Over 49.5 Runs will be considered as winning while bets on Under 49.5 Runs will be settled as losing. Should a batsman retire due to injury or any other reason, his score at the end of his team’s innings will be considered as the result for that bet. Additionally, for all limited overs matches, all bets will be declared as void should the number of overs be reduced due to weather (or any other reason) from the standard scheduled number of overs in a Twenty 20 match or any other limited overs match. Should the outcome of such offers be already decided before the interruption and no further play would possibly change the outcome of such bets, then these will be settled accordingly.

- 11) “Player to Score 50/Half Century” (Yes/No) betting requires that the player reach the batting crease while a ball is bowled, though it is not necessary that they face a ball. A player is deemed to have scored 50 or a “Half Century” once their score is 50 or more runs regardless of whether the player scores a century or more. In cases where a batsman’s innings is ended by weather or bad light, all bets where a result has not been determined will be declared void, unless the game has reached a natural conclusion. Should a batsman retire due to injury or any other reason, his score at the end of his team’s innings will be considered as the result for that bet. Additionally, for all limited overs matches, should the intervention of rain (or any other delay) result in the number of overs being reduced from those initially scheduled at the time the bet was accepted, then all open (player to score 50) bets will be declared void if the reduction is 10% or more of those scheduled. If the reduction is less than 10% of the scheduled overs at the time the bet was accepted, then bets will stand. If a team innings is 10 overs or less, then any reduction in overs will void bets. Should the outcome of such offers be already decided before the interruption and no further play could possibly change the outcome of such bets, then these will be settled accordingly.
- 12) “Player to Score 100/Century/200/Double Century” (Yes/No) betting requires that the player reach the batting crease while a ball is bowled, though not necessarily facing a ball. A player is deemed to have scored 100 or a “Century” once their score is 100 or more runs regardless of whether the player scores a double century or more. Similarly, a player is deemed to have scored 200 or a “Double Century” once their score is 200 or more runs. In cases where a batsman’s innings is ended by weather or bad light, all bets where a result has not been determined will be declared void. Should a batsman retire due to injury or any other reason, his score at the end of his team’s innings will be considered as the result for that bet. Additionally, for all limited overs matches, should the intervention of rain (or any other delay) result in the number of overs being reduced from those initially scheduled at the time the bet was accepted, then all open (player to score 100/200) bets will be declared void if the reduction is 10% or more of those scheduled. If the reduction is less than 10% of the scheduled overs at the time the bet was accepted, then bets will stand. If a team innings is 10 overs or less, then any reduction in overs will void bets. Should the outcome of such offers be already decided before the interruption and no further play would possibly change the outcome of such bets, then these will be settled accordingly.

c) Limited Overs Cricket (including One-Day Internationals, Twenty20s & Domestic One-Day cricket)

- 1) Should a match be transferred to a “reserve” day, all bets will remain valid as long as the game commences within 48 hours of the original scheduled start time.
- 2) Match odds (head-to-head) betting pays on the official result. In the event of a tie, dead heat rules as explained in Clause 1 of the General Cricket Rules will apply unless a subsequent tiebreaker method is used to determine the winner (e.g., Super Over, Bowl-out), in which case the outcome will be settled on the result of this method. Should the match be declared a “no-result” all bets are void.
- 3) If any “Super Over” or tiebreaker is required, any runs, wickets or any other stat that may occur in the Super Over/tie breaker do not count towards any betting market (except match result) including player bet offers & team totals (e.g., Top batsman/bowler, player runs, total 6’s, to take at least X wickets). This rule does not apply to specific bet offers relating to “Super Overs” (e.g., Super Over Total Runs).
- 4) For “Match Handicap/Winning Margin” betting, settlement will depend on whether the winning team bats 1st or 2nd. If the team batting 1st wins, then the runs handicap will be used for settlement. If the team batting 2nd wins, then the wickets handicap will be used for settlement. All bets will be declared as void should the number of overs be reduced due to weather (or any other reason) from the standard scheduled number of overs in a Twenty 20 match or any other limited overs match.

- 5) For “Highest 1st 6/15 Overs” all bets will be declared as void should the number of overs in the match be reduced due to weather (or any other reason) from the scheduled number of overs at the time the bet was accepted (whether standard or already reduced). Should the outcome of such offers be already decided before the interruption and no further play would possibly change the outcome of such bets, then these will be settled accordingly. In the event of a tie, if no draw price was offered, dead heat rules as explained in Clause 1 of the General Cricket Rules will apply.
- 6) “Highest Total 1st X Overs” bets will be void if rain or any other delay results in the number of overs in the match being reduced from those initially scheduled at the time the bet was accepted. Should the outcome of such offers be decided before the interruption and no further play could possibly change the outcome of such bets, these offers will be settled accordingly.
- 7) “Highest Opening Partnership” requires that both sides complete their opening partnerships with the exception of those situations where an outcome has already been determined. An opening partnership is considered to have begun once the first ball is bowled in a team innings, and lasts until the fall of 1st wicket or, should no 1st wicket fall, the innings reaching its natural conclusion. In the event of a tie, if no draw price was offered, dead heat rules as explained in Clause 1 of the General Cricket Rules will apply.

Additionally, all “Highest Opening Partnership” bets will be declared as void should the number of overs in the match be reduced due to weather (or any other reason) from the scheduled number of overs at the time the bet was accepted (whether standard or already reduced). Should the outcome of such offers be already decided before the interruption and no further play would possibly change the outcome of such bets, these offers will be settled accordingly.

- 8) In “Fall of Next Wicket” & “Opening Partnership” (Over/Under) betting, should either batsman retire due to injury or any other reason before a result has been determined, all bets placed before the retirement will be declared void; bets taken after the first ball of the new partnership will stand. A result is deemed to have been determined if the partnership total has passed the run total at which the bet was accepted. If a team reaches their target, the total achieved by the batting team will be the result of the market. If a partnership is disrupted due to weather all bets will stand, unless there is no further play in the match. In such case all bets where a result has not been determined will be declared void. In relation to the over number at the fall of next wicket, any quoted half refers to the whole over number not the specific balls bowled in each over (e.g., over/under 5.5 refers to either “any delivery in over 5 & earlier” or “any delivery in over 6 & later”).

Additionally, all Fall of Wicket (F.O.W.) bets will be declared as void should the number of overs in the match be reduced due to weather (or any other reason) from the scheduled number of overs at the time the bet was accepted (whether standard or already reduced). Should the outcome of such offers be already decided before the interruption and no further play would possibly change the outcome of such bets, these offers will be settled accordingly.

- 9) For “Total Runs – Innings X” (Over/Under) (e.g., Total Team Runs) betting, all bets will be declared as void should the number of overs in the match be reduced due to weather (or any other reason) from the scheduled number of overs at the time the bet was accepted (whether standard or already reduced). Should the outcome of such offers be already decided before the interruption and no further play would possibly change the outcome of such bets, then these will be settled accordingly. For the avoidance of doubt: Any bets taken after the number of overs has been reduced will stand unless there is a further reduction.

- 10) For “Total Runs – Innings X, Overs X-X” (Over/Under) (e.g., Total Runs – Home Team, Overs 1-15) betting, all bets will be declared as void should the number of overs be reduced due to weather (or any other reason) from the scheduled number of overs in the match at the time the bet was accepted (whether standard or already reduced). If the outcome of such offers have been decided before the interruption and no further play would possibly change the outcome of such bets, these offers will be settled accordingly. For the avoidance of doubt: Any bets taken after the number of overs has been reduced will stand unless there is a further reduction.
- 11) For “Total 4s/6s/Boundaries/Wickets” (Over/Under) betting, all bets will be declared void should the number of overs be reduced due to weather (or any other reason) from the scheduled number of overs in the match at the time the bet was accepted (whether standard or already reduced). If the outcome of such offers have been decided before the interruption and no further play would possibly change the outcome of such bets, these offers will be settled accordingly.

Leg-bye and byes that reach/pass the boundary do not count towards total 4s/6s. Overthrows awarded to the batsman do count. Wides that reach the boundary are not counted. No-balls that reach the boundary off the bat and are awarded to the batsman will be counted.

- 12) For “Most Fours/Sixes/Wides/Run-outs/Boundaries/Ducks/Extras” betting, if rain or any other delay results in the number of overs being reduced from those initially scheduled at the time the bet was accepted, then all open (Most “X”) bets will be declared void if the reduction is 10% or more of those scheduled. If the reduction is less than 10% of the scheduled overs at the time the bet was accepted, the bets will stand. If a team innings is 10 overs or less, then any reduction in overs are void (most “x”) bets. If the outcome of such offers is decided before the interruption and no further play would possibly change the outcome of such bets, these offers will be settled accordingly. Leg-bye and byes that reach/pass the boundary do not count towards total 4s/6s.

In the event of a tie, if no draw price was offered, dead heat rules as explained in Clause 1 of the General Cricket Rules will apply.

- 13) For “Total Wides/Run-outs/Ducks/Extras/Stumpings” (Over/Under) betting, all bets will be declared as void should the number of overs be reduced due to weather (or any other reason) from the scheduled number of overs in the match at the time the bet was accepted (whether standard or already reduced). If the outcome of such offers has been decided before the interruption and no further play would possibly change the outcome of such bets, these offers will be settled accordingly. For wides and extras, settlement will include the runs scored from wides and not just the number of wides bowled.
- 14) For “Highest Individual Score”, all bets will be declared void should the number of overs in the match be reduced due to weather (or any other reason) from the standard scheduled number of overs in a Twenty 20 match or any other limited overs match. If the outcome of such offers is decided before the interruption, these offers will be settled accordingly.
- 15) For “Team of Top Run Scorer” betting, if rain or any other delay results in the number of overs being reduced from those initially scheduled at the time the bet was accepted, then all open (team of top run scorer) bets will be declared void if the reduction is 10% or more of those scheduled. If the reduction is less than 10% of the scheduled overs at the time the bet was accepted, then bets will stand. If a team innings is 10 overs or less, then any reduction in overs will void bets. If the outcome of such offers is decided before the interruption and no further play would possibly change the outcome of such bets, these offers will be settled accordingly. In the event of a tie, if no draw price was offered, dead heat rules as explained in Clause 1 of the General Cricket Rules will apply.

- 16) For “Fifty/Century in Match” (Yes/No) betting, if rain or any other delay results in the number of overs being reduced from those initially scheduled at the time the bet was accepted, then all open (fifty/century in match) bets will be declared void if the reduction is 10% or more of those scheduled. If the reduction is less than 10% of the scheduled overs at the time the bet was accepted, then bets will stand. If a team innings is 10 overs or less, then any reduction in overs will void bets. If the outcome of such offers is decided before the interruption and no further play would possibly change the outcome of such bets, these offers will be settled accordingly.
- 17) For “Highest Total Runs in an Over/Maximum Runs in an Over” (Over/Under) bets will be settled on the greatest number of runs (including extras) scored in any one over of either innings in the match.
- 18) All bets will be declared as void should the number of overs be reduced due to weather (or any other reason) from the scheduled number of overs at the time the bet was accepted (whether standard or already reduced). Should the outcome of such offers be already decided before the interruption and no further play would possibly change the outcome of such bets, then these will be settled accordingly.

d) Test Matches/First Class Matches/ 3-, 4- or 5-day matches

- 1) If a match is officially abandoned (e.g., due to dangerous pitch conditions) then all undecided bets on the match are void.
- 2) For “Match Odds” betting in Test/First Class/3, 4 or 5 day matches, in the event of a tie where both teams have completed two innings each and have scored exactly the same number of runs, bets on “Match Odds” will be voided with stakes refunded. In Test and First Class Cricket matches, the match winner will be settled as determined by the competition’s official governing body. If the governing body states that the match has been drawn, then only bets on draw/tie will win on the 3-way match odds market, while bets on either team to win the match will be lost.
- 3) For “Draw No Bet” betting, in the event of a draw or tie, bets are void and refunded.
- 4) For “Double Chance” betting, in the event of a tie where both teams have completed two innings each and have scored exactly the same number of runs, bets will be void and refunded.
- 5) For “Most Points” betting, offers will be settled based on who has the most points awarded for the match (e.g., Sheffield Shield). In the event of a tie, if no draw price was offered, dead heat rules as explained in the Sport Specific Rules, Section C, Paragraph 9(a).1.
- 6) “Highest Opening Partnership” bets require that both sides complete their opening partnerships except where an outcome has already been determined. Unless otherwise stated, Highest Opening Partnership refers to the first innings of each team only. In the event of a tie, if no draw price was offered, dead heat rules as explained in the Sport Specific Rules, Section C, Paragraph 9(a).1.
- 7) In “Fall of Next Wicket” & “Opening Partnership” (Over/Under) betting, should either batsman retire due to injury or any other reason before a result has been determined all bets will be declared void. A result is deemed to have been determined if the innings total has passed the run total at which the bet was accepted. If a team declares or reaches their target, the total achieved by the batting team will be the result of the market. If a partnership is disrupted due to weather all bets will stand, unless there is no further play in the match. In such case all bets where a result has not been determined will be declared void. Extras and penalty runs awarded before the fall of wicket or during the partnership, according to the match scorecard, will be counted.

In relation to the over number at the fall of next wicket, any quoted half refers to the whole over number not the specific balls bowled in each over (e.g., over/under 5.5 refers to either “any delivery in over 5 & earlier” or “any delivery in over 6 & later”).

- 8) For “Total Runs – Innings X” (Over/Under) (e.g., Total Team runs) betting, all bets will be void if 50 overs are not bowled, unless an innings has reached its natural conclusion, or is declared. If an innings is declared at any point bets will be settled on the declaration total. Extras and penalty runs awarded during the innings, according to the match scorecard, will be counted.
- 9) “Session Runs” betting requires 20 overs to be bowled in a session for bets to stand. Bets are settled on the total number of runs in the session regardless of which team scores the runs. Extras and penalty runs awarded during the session, according to the match scorecard, will be counted.
- 10) “Session Wickets” betting requires 20 overs to be bowled in a session for bets to stand. Bets are settled on the total number of wickets lost in the session regardless of which team loses them.
- 11) For any betting involving “Session”, the following definition of each session will apply to day matches.
 - Day X, Session 1 (Start of play until Lunch is taken)
 - Day X, Session 2 (Lunch until Tea is taken)
 - Day X, Session 3 (Tea until stumps/close of play for the day)

The following definition of each session will apply to day/night matches.

- Day X, Session 1 (Start of play until tea is taken)
 - Day X, Session 2 (Tea until dinner is taken)
 - Day X, Session 3 (Dinner until stumps/close of play for the day)
- 12) For “Test Match Finish” betting, where a match finishes in a draw, the winner will be deemed as “Day 5, Session 3”. If a match is officially abandoned (e.g., due to dangerous pitch conditions) then all bets are void.
 - 13) For “Team to Lead after First Innings” betting, both teams are required to be bowled out or declare their first innings for bets to stand. In the event of a tie, if no draw price was offered, dead heat rules as explained in the Sport Specific Rules, Section C, Paragraph 9(a).1.
 - 14) “First Innings Century” offers require 50 overs to be bowled unless a result has already been determined or the innings has reached its natural conclusion (including innings declared).
 - 15) For “Fifty/Century/Double Century in match” in either Test or First class matches, bets will be void in drawn matches where the number of overs bowled is less than 200, unless a result has already been determined.
 - 16) For “Fifty/Century/Double Century in match” in “Home/Away 1st Innings” of either Test or First class matches, bets will be void unless the innings reaches its natural conclusion (including “Innings declared”) or a result has already been determined.
 - 17) For “Fifty/Century/Double Century in match” in Either 1st Innings of either Test or First class matches, bets will be void unless both innings reach their natural conclusion (including “Innings declared”) or a result has already been determined.

- 18) For “Fifty/Century/Double Century in match” in “Home/Away 2nd Innings” of either Test or First class matches, bets will be void in case the number of overs bowled for that innings is less than 50, unless a result has already been determined.
- 19) “Team of Top Run Scorer” betting will be settled of the top run scorer for either the 1st or 2nd innings of either team, i.e., the team of the highest individual run scorer in the match regardless of the overall match result. Bets will be void in drawn matches where the number of overs bowled is less than 200. In the event of a tie, if no draw price was offered, dead heat rules will apply as explained in the Sport Specific Rules, Section C, Paragraph 9(a).1.

e) Series/Tournament Betting

- 3) All tournament betting includes Finals/Playoffs, unless otherwise stated.

- 5) For “Top Series Run Scorer/Wicket Taker” & “Top Tournament Batsman/Bowler” betting, where a tie occurs dead heat rules will apply as explained in the Sport Specific Rules, Section C, Paragraph 9(a).1. - 3) All “Head-to-Head” and “Over/Under” bets featuring the performance of one or more riders in an event/stage are considered valid provided all listed riders start the relative event/stage and at least one completes the event/stage.
- 4) Bets referring to the outcome upon completion of the event require that the specified event is considered as completed in full and its result is declared, otherwise bets will be declared void, unless the result is already determined. In case the full number of stages for an event is not totally completed, or if the organizers decide to remove the result of certain stages from the computation of the official result, then the bets will be deemed valid if the number of the excluded stages does not exceed 25% of the preestablished number of stages (excluding prologue) at the beginning of the competition.
- 5) All bets will be deemed valid provided that the event, or the relative stage to which the bet refers, is played within the same year, unless other arrangements have been agreed to.

In such case, bets placed before the announcement of the change in stage concept will be declared void.
- 7) Unless otherwise specified, in a team/rider performance bet offer in a specific event (such as Total Stage wins by Team/Rider X in Tour Y) or “Head-to-Head” bet offers involving two riders’/teams’ performances in specific events, occurrences happening in events which are given any of the following denominations will not count towards the settlement: Prologue, Team Time Trial.

The player progressing to the next round or winning the tournament is to be considered the winner of the bet regardless of match duration, withdrawals, disqualifications, etc. granted that the match actually starts.
- 3) “Over/Under” offers on unfinished matches/events, the outcome of which is already determined before the interruption and/or any further continuance of play could not possibly produce a different outcome to the offers will be settled based on the result achieved until the interruption. For the calculation of these settlements, the minimum number of occurrences which should have been needed to bring the offer to the natural conclusion will be added as necessary depending on the number of legs which the match is scheduled for. Should this calculation produce a situation where no possible variations could affect the outcome of the offer this will be settled as such. See examples from the Tennis section for reference.

- 4) "Handicap" offers require all scheduled sets to be completed for bets to stand except in those events the outcome of which is already determined before the interruption and/or any further continuance of play could not possibly produce a different outcome to the offers which will be settled accordingly. See examples from the Tennis section for reference.
- 5) All "Correct Score" and "Odd/Even" offers, and those offers which refer to the winner of a particular period in the match (e.g., "Player to win the first set" or "First Player to reach X Sets"), require the relevant part of the match to be completed.
- 6) All types of offers not specified above require at least one set to be completed for bets to stand, except for those offers the outcome of which is already determined before an interruption of play and any further continuation of play could not possibly produce a different outcome.
- 7) Offers combining a number of occurrences by a specific player within an event (e.g., King of the Oche, etc.) require that all connotations related to the offer bet must be fully and unquestionably complied with. Should 1 or more parts of the offer end in a tie, bets will be settled as LOST.
- 8) All offers that refer to a "{x}+checkout" will be settled as yes on occurrences of the checkout of {x} or more inclusive. For example, the offer "100+Checkout - Leg 1" will be settled as yes, if there is exactly a 100 checkout in Leg 1

Should the information required for the settling of the offer be missing/not shown and/or incomplete, the first official information on the official site will be deemed binding, regardless of subsequent promotions, demotions, appeals and/or penalties inflicted after the termination of the session/level which the bet refers to. In cases of abandoned/uncompleted events, all offers in which the outcome has already determined before the interruption of play and any further continuation of play could not possibly produce a different outcome are deemed valid and will be settled accordingly.
- 2) Events being shortened due to weather conditions or other situations but are deemed official by the governing body will be settled accordingly, regardless of any changes which said associations might make due to the incompleteness of the level.
- 3) Should a heat/semi-final/final/level be restarted from the beginning, bets will stand and will be settled according to the result issued after the restart, except for those bets where the outcome has already been determined.
- 4) For settlement purposes, a pilot who has taken part in a heat is considered to have taken part in the semifinal/final/level.

- 2) All bets referring to Tournament Performance, including but not limited to Winner, Place, Each-way, Winner without X, Group Betting, Top Nationality, Individual Final Position, etc., will be deemed valid as long as the minimum number of holes, applicable to the offer, as per the rules of the governing body (e.g., 36 holes for European Tour sanctioned events and 54 holes for PGA Tour sanctioned events), have been completed by the eligible players, and an official result has been declared by the sanctioning body. Should the format of a tournament be changed so that it features less rounds/holes than originally scheduled, all bets accepted on such offers after the last shot of the last completed round will be declared void.
- 3) Bet offers already decided are considered valid even though 36 holes are not played and/or an official result has not been issued by the organization.

- 8) All “Head-to-Head” bet offers require all participants to start in the event/round to which the bet refers.
- 9) In “Head-to-Head” bets featuring only two players, bets will be void if both participants share the same finishing position, and no draw option has been offered. In “Head-to-Head” bets featuring three players, should two or more participants share the same finishing position, stakes will be divided in accordance with the General Betting Rules, Section B, Paragraph 5, Clause 19.
- 10) Settlement of “Head-to-Head” bet offers involving the performance of two or more players (e.g., Best Finishing Position in the tournament) will be based upon the best finishing position/lowest score (as applicable) achieved in the relative event/round to which the bet refers.
- 11) Any reference to Make/Miss the “Cut” requires an official cut/exclusion effected by the organizers for bets to stand. In tournaments where players are eliminated during more than one phase, settlement will be based on a whether the player has qualified or not following the first “Cut” made.
- 12) Disqualification/withdrawals by a player before the “Cut” will result in the player being considered as having missed the “Cut”. Disqualification/withdrawals subsequent to the “Cut” being made will be irrelevant towards the original settlement of the “Make the Cut” offers.

- 13) In “Head-to-Heads” based on the best finishing position in the tournament, if one player misses the cut then the other player will be settled as the winner. If both participants fail to make the “Cut” the player with the lowest score at the “Cut” will be considered the winner. Should both players fail to make the “Cut” with the same score then the bet will be void. - 16) Bets referring to a specific participant placing within a predetermined position (e.g., Top 5/10/20/40) during a tournament, selection of tournaments or any particular classification will be settled as per dead heat rules should the participant tie for that particular position.
- 17) Offers related to a participant occupying a particular position on the Leaderboard at a specific time (e.g., Leader at End of Round X) will be settled in accordance with the result at the end of the specified round/timeframe. Dead heat rules will apply for any tied placings.
- 18) In tournaments where the “modified Stableford scoring” is used, bets will be settled on the points scored and not the strokes taken. Listed players must complete at least 1 hole for bets to stand, otherwise bets will be void.
- 19) Settlement of so-called “Action-betting” offers and similar, including but not limited to “Fairways/Greens in Regulation/Bunkers/Water Hazards”, are settled on the exact location where the ball is deemed to have come to rest. 23. Rugby League

- 1) Unless otherwise stated, settlement of bets on Rugby League will be determined on the basis of the result after the so called extra (over) time or Golden Point Rule, as applicable.
- 2) “Margin Betting” and “Half Time/Full Time” offers are settled with the outcome at the end of the 80 minutes play.
- 3) Certain competitions/events might have offers that are relevant to a specific period/match that can end in a draw, either at the end of the normal 80 minutes of play or even after eventual extra (over) time is played. In such cases, bets will be settled according to the dead heat rule, where the payout would be calculated after the odds are divided and then multiplied by the stake, regardless of whether the net payout is lower than the patron’s stake.
- 4) Try Scorers (First/Last/Anytime/Team) – All bets include any potential extra (over) time. Any bets placed on players in the game day 17 stand regardless of the player’s participation (or lack thereof) in the match. Stakes on players not included in the game day 17 will be refunded.
- 5) Unless otherwise specified, offers referring to individual player performances in a single match (e.g., Total Tries Scored by Player X) or relative performance of 2 individual players during the course of a match (e.g., Will Player X or Player Y score the most Tries) require all listed participants to play from the start of the match to be valid.
- 6) Offers referring to individual player performances (e.g., Total Tries Scored by Player X during the World Cup) or relative performance of 2 individual players over a particular game/period/tournament/season (e.g., Will Player X or Player Y score the most tries during the Regular Season) require that all listed individuals be an active participant in at least one more event for the bets to be valid. Bets placed after any news which can potentially reduce the number of events any listed player is eligible for within the competition (e.g., injury/transfer/trade news), thus altering the odds theoretically in favor of any particular outcome without such odds adjusted to reflect the current state of the bet, will be declared void. Settlement of similar bets will be based on the result after potential over (extra) time, unless otherwise stated.
- 7) All bets stand, regardless of change of venue.

24. Rugby Union

- 1) Unless otherwise specified, all bets referring to the match and team performances, etc. are settled in accordance with the result at the end of the 2nd half (after 80 minutes play).
- 2) Certain competitions/events might have offers that are relevant to a specific period/match that can end in a draw, either at the end of the normal 80 minutes of play or even after eventual extra (over) time is played. In such cases bets are settled according to the dead heat rule, where the payout would be calculated after the odds are divided and then multiplied by the stake, regardless of whether the net payout is lower than the patron's stake.

- 3) Try Scorers (First/Last/Anytime/Team) - All bets include any potential extra (over) time. Any bets placed on players in the game day squad stand regardless of the player's participation (or lack thereof) in the match. Stakes on players not included in the game day squad will be refunded. Penalty Tries will be settled on the "penalty try" outcome listed for each team. In the event of no try scored in the match no bets shall be refunded.
- 4) Unless otherwise specified, offers referring to individual player performance in a single match (e.g., Total Tries Scored by Player X) or relative performance of 2 individual players during the course of a match (e.g., Will Player X or Player Y score the most Tries) require all listed individuals to play from the start of the match for bets to be valid.
- 5) Offers referring to individual player performances (e.g., Total Tries Scored by Player X during the World Cup) or relative performance of 2 individual players over a particular game/period/tournament/season (e.g., Will Player X or Player Y score the most tries during the Regular Season) require that all listed individuals be an active participant in at least one more event for bets to stand. Bets placed after any news which can potentially reduce the number of markets any listed player is eligible for within the competition (e.g., injury/transfer/trade news), and theoretically alter the odds in favor of any particular outcome without the odds having been adjusted to reflect the current state of the bet, will be declared void. Settlement of similar bets will be based on the result after potential over (extra) time, unless otherwise stated.
- 6) All bets stand, regardless of change of venue.

25. Snooker

- 1) All bets will remain valid provided the match/offer is played within the tournament framework regardless of any changes in schedule, etc.
- 2) "Moneyline" (or "Match") bet offers are based on the general principle of tournament progress or tournament win, depending on the phase of the competition to which the match refers. The player progressing to the next round or winning the tournament is to be considered the winner of the bet regardless of match duration, withdrawals, disqualifications, etc. These bets require at least one frame to be completed for bets to stand.
- 3) "Over/Under" offers on unfinished matches/events in which the outcome is already determined prior to the interruption and/or any further continuance of play could not produce a different outcome to such offers will be settled based on the result achieved prior to the interruption occurred. For the calculation of these settlements, the minimum number of occurrences which should have been needed to bring the offer to its natural conclusion will be added as necessary depending on the number of frames which the match is scheduled for. Should this calculation produce a situation where no possible variations could affect the outcome of the offer this will be settled as such. See examples from the Tennis section for reference.
- 4) "Handicap" offers require all scheduled frames to be completed for bets to stand except in those events the outcome of which is already determined before the interruption and/or any further continuance of play could not possibly produce a different outcome to the offers which will be settled accordingly. See examples from the Tennis section for reference.

- 5) All “Correct Score” and “Odd/Even” offers, and those offers which refer to the winner of a particular period in the match (e.g., “Player to win the first set” or “First Player to reach X Frames”), require the relevant part of the match to be completed.
- 6) All types of offers not specified above require at least one frame to be completed for bets to stand, except for those offers the outcome of which is already determined before an interruption of play and any further continuation of play could not possibly produce a different outcome.
- 7) In cases of a re-rack, all bets on that specific frame will be settled as void and a new market will be opened. An exception will be made for those offers in which the outcome is already determined prior to the re-rack and any further continuation of play could not produce a different outcome.
- 8) All offers that refer to a "{x}+break" will be settled as yes on occurrences of the break of {x} or more inclusive. For example, the offer "100+ Break in Frame 1" will be settled as yes, if there is exactly a 100 break in frame 1.

26. Soccer

- 1) First/Next Goalscorer – The bet refers to a specific player being the scorer of the listed goal within the applicable timeframe or being the first scorer for his team (e.g., “First Goalscorer – Team X”). Bets will be void on players who do not take part in the match or come on the field of play after the listed goal to which the bet refers has been scored. Own goals do not count for the settlement of this offer. Should the goal to which the bet refers be deemed as an own goal, the next player to score a goal which is not an own goal and which conforms with the bet offer parameters will be deemed as the winning outcome. In case no goals (or no further goals, as applicable) is/are scored which are not own goals and which fulfil the remaining bet offer parameters, all bets will be considered lost, unless an applicable option has been listed within the offer.
- 2) Last Goalscorer – The bet refers to a specific player being the scorer of the last goal either during a particular timeframe of the event (e.g., “Last goal in the match” or “Last goal in the 1st Half”) or being the last scorer for his team (e.g., “Last Goalscorer – Team X”). Bets will be voided only on players who do not take part in the match at all. In all other instances bets will remain valid, regardless of the time of inclusion/substitution of the player. Own goals do not count for the settlement of this offer. Should the goal to which the bet refers be deemed as an own goal, the previous player to score a goal which is not an own goal and which conforms with the bet offer parameters will be deemed as the winning outcome. In case no goals (or no previous goals, as applicable) is/are scored which are not own goals and which fulfil the remaining bet offer parameters, all bets will be considered lost.
- 3) “Scorecast” and “Matchcast” are bet offers where it is possible to bet simultaneously on a particular occurrence (e.g., First Goalscorer) combined with another from the same or related event (e.g., Correct Score in the match or match outcome). Should the bet refer to First or Last Goal Scorer, terms and conditions as stated in Sport Specific Rules, Section C, Paragraphs 25.1 and 25.2 will apply, where applicable. Bets will be voided on players who do not take part in the match at all. In all other instances bets will remain valid, regardless of the time of inclusion/substitution of the player. Own goals do not count for the settlement of this offer.
- 4) Unless otherwise specified, or indicated in conjunction with the bet offer, all bets placed before match start related to whether a specific player(s) will manage to score any number of goals require the listed player(s) to play from the start of the match to be valid. Similar types of bets placed after the relevant match has started will be settled as void should the listed player(s) not take any further part in the match for whatever reason after bet acceptance. Own goals will never count as a goal scored for any selected player.

- 5) On all bets related to yellow/red cards, booking points, etc. only cards shown to players which at that moment are on the pitch are valid for settlement purposes. Cards, disciplinary actions, or suspensions imposed on any other individual who at the moment of the sanction is not, or should not, be actively playing on the pitch, as well as disciplinary measures taken after the game has officially ended, are disregarded.
- 6) Unless otherwise specified or indicated in conjunction with the bet offer, all disciplinary-related bets placed before match start referring to individual(s) (e.g., yellow card, red card, number of fouls) require the listed player(s) to play from the start of the match to be valid. Similar type of bets placed after the relevant match has started will be settled as void should the listed player(s) not take any further part in the match for whatever reason after bet acceptance.
- 7) “Booking Points” are calculated according to the following rules: Yellow card = 10 points; Red card = 25 points. Maximum points for one player are 35.
- 8) Offers referring to individual player performances in a single match (e.g., Total Goals Scored by Player X) or relative performance of 2 individual players during the course of a match (e.g., Will Player X or Player Y score the most Goals) require all listed individuals to play from the start of the match for bets to stand.
- 9) Offers referring to individual player performances (e.g., Total Goals Scored by Player X during the World Cup) or relative performance of 2 individual players over a particular period/tournament/season (e.g., Will Player X or Player Y score the most goals during the league) require that all listed individuals must be an active participant in at least one more event applicable for the bets to stand. Bets placed after any news which can potentially reduce the number of markets any listed player is eligible for within the competition (e.g., injury/transfer/trade news), and theoretically alter the odds in favor of any particular outcome without the odds having been adjusted to reflect the current state of the bet, will be declared void.
- 10) All bets referring to aggregated Tournament Totals (such as Goals, Corners, Cards, Penalties, etc.) will be settled based on official statistics by the governing body. Unless otherwise stated, cumulative amounts of such bets will include eventual prolongations (e.g., Extra Time) but not Penalty Shoot-outs.
- 11) Unless specifically stated, all bets referring to a particular team winning a number/selection of trophies in the same season will be based on the particular team’s performance within the following competitions: the domestic league, the apparent equivalent of the respective FA Cup and League Cup as well as the Champions League or Europa League. Other trophies (e.g., domestic and European Super Cup, World Club Cup) do not count.
- 12) The “Domestic Double” is to be considered as the team’s victory in the equivalent of the respective domestic league and FA Cup.
- 13) For settlement purposes, bets referring to the number of cards shown by the referee will be counted as follows:
 - Yellow card = 1

Red card = 2

- One yellow and a red = 3
- Two yellow cards and a red = 3

The maximum cards for one player is 3 cards. Only cards shown to players currently eligible as per the Sport Specific Rules, Section C, Paragraph 25, Clause 5, will be taken into consideration.

- 14) Bets on whether a particular player will manage to score from certain areas of the pitch (e.g., from outside the “penalty box”) will be settled based on the position of the ball at the time the shot was struck by the player, regardless of any further deflections which the ball trajectory might incur following the initial shot. For the sake of clarity, the lines delineating the “penalty box” are to be considered as an integral part of such area of the pitch. Thus, if a shot is struck with the ball hovering above, or touching, even partially, the lines, the shot will not be considered as having been outside the box.
- 15) Bets on whether a particular player will manage to hit the cross bar, goal post or any other part of the frame delineating the goal area will only be settled as having accomplished such feat if the shot does not result directly in a goal being awarded exactly after the ball hits a part of the goal frame. Settlement will only take into consideration shots aimed at the goal frame defended by the opponents of the listed player’s team. If a player has a shot which hits the post their team defends, this will not be considered as having accomplished such feat.
- 16) During certain events Prairie Band Sportsbook might decide to offer a reduced selection of participants for betting (e.g., Any unlisted Team X player) or a single participant as a representation of the whole squad (e.g., “Any Team X player”). In both cases for settlement purposes, all unlisted squad members are to be deemed as starters (and settled as such), including substitutes regardless of whether they take part in the match or not.
- 17) Bets on the performance of players starting the match on the bench will be settled as void if the player is either listed in the starting XI (11 players) or does not take part in the match at all.
- 18) On offers such as Next Goalscorer, Next Carded player, Next Assist and Man of the Match stakes will be voided should the chosen player not take part in the match at all or had no possibility to accomplish such feat during the specified timeframe.
- 19) Bets on “Next Assist” for a particular goal will be settled as void should the governing body declare the specified goal as having been unassisted, the specified goal was an own goal and/or no more goals were scored in the match during the specified timeframe.
- 20) Bets referring to penalty kicks conversion and/or outcome will be settled according to the outcome occurred on the field of play as per the rules governing that specific scenario and in cases of penalty shoot-outs will remain valid regardless of the format employed by the governing body during the shootout. Bets stand if the penalty is ordered to be re-taken and will be settled with the outcome achieved from the re-taken penalty.

As a general principle, settlement will be based on the concept that unless the penalty kick results in a goal being awarded (and settled accordingly), the first person/object/location (as applicable) which the ball initially touches after being kicked will be considered as the winning outcome, disregarding any other persons/objects the ball hits in its subsequent trajectory following any previous deflection, if any. The following examples are being issued as a general guideline on settlement:

“Goal” would be the winning outcome in case of the following scored penalties scenarios:

- Any penalty kick which ends up as a goal without it being deflected;
- Goalkeeper touches the penalty kick, but ball ends up as goal;
- Penalty kick touches the woodwork before ending up in goal.

“Save” would be the winning outcome in case of the following missed penalties scenarios:

- Goalkeeper deflects the penalty kick to outside the goal frame;
- Goalkeeper deflects the penalty kick onto the post/crossbar.

“Woodwork” would be the winning outcome in case of the following missed penalties scenarios:

- Penalty kick hits the woodwork before it is touched/saved by the goalkeeper;
- Penalty kick hits the woodwork and ball goes outside the goal frame.

“Any other Miss” would be the winning outcome in case of any penalty kick which without any deflection either by the goalkeeper or by the woodwork ends up outside the goal frame.

Exception to the above scenarios would be: 1) during a penalty shoot-out, if the ball hits the woodwork, bounces on the goalkeeper and ends in goal, the penalty will be considered as having been scored and “Goal” will be considered as the winning outcome); and 2) during any other part of the match that is not a penalty shoot-out, if the ball hits the woodwork, bounces on the goalkeeper and ends in goal, the penalty taker will be considered as having missed the score and “Woodwork” will be considered as the winning outcome.

- 21) Any decision taken by the Video Assistant Referee (VAR) which conflicts with the original decision sanctioned by the officials on the pitch (including non-decisions like allowing play to continue before reviewing the video), thus altering the understood state of the match at the time of bet placement, will result in all bets placed in the timeframe between the actual occurrence of the original incident and the referee’s final decision on the incident being deemed void, unless the odds offered on the specific bet offer are unaffected by the use of VAR or have already been accounted for in the odds offered at the time of bet acceptance. Settlement on all other unrelated bet-offers, including those determined by any play between the time of the original incident and the decision following the VAR review, which are not influenced/altered by the VAR decision will stand.

For settlement purposes, VAR reviews, and the decisions emanating from the reviews to be considered as having happened at the time of the original incident for which the VAR would be eventually used even if play has not been immediately interrupted. Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right, in accordance with the Conditions of Agreement, Section A, Paragraph 6, Clause 2, to reverse any previously settled offers where the settlement becomes inaccurate following the final referee decision, providing the decision is taken and communicated before the conclusion of the match and/or timeframe listed.

In order to avoid any doubts, Prairie Band Sportsbook will consider the VAR as having been used if it is understood from the referee’s gestures (e.g., hand gestures, stopping the match to review the incident themselves), and/or the VAR usage is confirmed by the match report issued by the governing body. In cases where it is unclear whether the VAR has been used due to missing TV coverage and/or conflicting reports, Prairie Band Sportsbook will settle the bets based on the information acquired from feed providers and reputable online sources on the basis of equity.

- 22) For settlement purposes, markets referring to team to be shown the next Card (booking) and/or “Total Cards” will always consider a Red Card as 2 instances of a card being shown and will be settled accordingly. The following examples are being listed as a guideline:

- First card shown in a match is a straight Red Card. The team to which the card is awarded will be settled as the winning selection for the offers: Cards #1 and #2;
 - First card shown in a match is a Yellow Card followed by a straight Red Card to the same player without a second yellow card being shown. The team to which the cards are awarded will be settled as the winning selection for the offers: Cards #1, #2 and #3;
 - First card shown in a match is a Yellow Card followed by a second Yellow Card with a subsequent Red Card to the same player. The team to which the cards are awarded will be settled as the winning selection for the offers: Cards #1, #2 and #3.
- 23) Markets referring to which specific player will be the next to be booked/receive a card are to be understood and settled as per the order of the instance in which each single player gets booked/sent off by the referee. The card color shown by the referee will not be given any consideration in the settlement of this offer and the decisive criteria will always be the order in which the single player is considered to have gone into the referee's book. For settlement purposes, it is possible for a single player to be listed twice as the "Next Carded player" provided both bookings occur during different interruptions of play. Should 2 or more players be booked during the same interruption of play, bets on this offer will be settled as void.
- 24) Any reference to "Free Kicks" when presented as either a single outcome or as an occurrence will also take into consideration instances awarded for offsides and any other violation except those sanctioned with a penalty.
- 25) Offers that refer to a specific player playing the whole match require that specified player to start the match for the bet to stand. For settlement purposes, bets will be settled as YES only if the specified player is neither substituted nor sent off during Regular Time only. Extra time does not count.

27. Speedway

- 1) All offers will be settled based on the official result declared by the governing body at the completion of the last scheduled heat. Subsequent promotions, demotions, appeals and/or penalties inflicted after the termination of the event to which the bet refers are disregarded.
- 2) "Match" bets between two teams/riders are settled according to the official result, regardless of the number of heats completed.
- 3) "Over/Under" offers on unfinished matches/events, the outcome of which is already determined before an interruption and/or any further continuance of play could not possibly produce a different outcome to offers, will be settled based on the result achieved until the interruption. For the calculation of these settlements, the minimum amount of occurrences which should have been needed to bring the offer to the natural conclusion will be added as necessary depending on the number of sets which the match is scheduled for. Should this calculation produce a situation where no possible alterations could affect the outcome of the offer this will be settled as such. See examples from the Tennis section for reference.
- 4) "Handicap" offers require all scheduled heats to be completed for bets to stand except in those events in which the outcome is determined before the interruption and/or any further continuance of play could not produce a different outcome to offers which will be settled accordingly. See examples from the Tennis section for reference.
- 5) All "Head-to-Head" and "Over/Under" bets featuring the performance of one or more riders in an event/heat are considered valid provided all listed riders take part in at least one heat for bets to stand.

- 6) Bets referring to a specific heat require the specific heat to be completed and all listed participants to take part in the particular heat for bets to stand.

28. Swimming

- 1) Unless otherwise stated, all bets on Swimming are determined on the basis of the result after the final stage of that competition. If neither of the listed participants takes part in the final stage, all bets will be void, unless the governing body follows specific tiebreaking procedures, in which case these will be deemed valid.
- 2) All bet offers will be settled based on the first official result being presented. However, Prairie Band Sportsbook will settle/re-settle accordingly any changes to the official result issued within 24 hours after the event has taken place. For such eventuality to be considered, a protest must be attributable to incidents happening exclusively during the event, such as a lane infringement, an early start in a relay race, etc. No doping cases will be considered. The result available at the end of the aforementioned 24 hours will be deemed as binding regardless of any further protests, changes to the official result, etc.
- 3) If two or more participants take part in different heats during a competition, all Head-To-Head offers between them will be considered void, unless there is a later stage in the competition that at least one of them qualifies for.
- 4) A participant who is disqualified due to the infringement of the start procedure (false start) will be deemed to have taken part in the event.

29. Tennis and Racket Sports (Badminton, Jai-Alai, Squash, Paddle, Pickleball & Table Tennis)

- 1) All bets will remain valid provided the match/offer is played within the tournament framework regardless of any changes (either before or during the match) in conditions (indoor/outdoor) and/or surface types, unless other arrangements have been agreed.
- 2) Match Bet offers are based on the general principle of tournament progress or tournament win, depending on the phase of the competition to which the match refers. The player/team progressing to the next round or winning the tournament is to be considered as the winner of the bet regardless of withdrawals, disqualifications, etc. These bets require at least one set to be completed for bets to stand.
- 3) “Over/Under” and “Spreads” (or “Handicap”) offers on unfinished matches in which the outcome is already determined before an interruption of play and/or any further continuance of play could not possibly produce a different outcome to the offers will be settled based on the result achieved until the interruption. For the calculation of these settlements, the minimum number of occurrences which should have been needed to bring the offer to its natural conclusion will be added as necessary depending on the number of sets which the match is scheduled for. Should this calculation produce a situation where no possible variations could affect the outcome of the offer this will be settled as such. The following examples can be used for consideration:
 - , Example 1 - Over/Under: A retirement occurs in a match scheduled for three sets with the score 7-6, 4-4. The offers: “Total Games Set 2 – 9.5” (or any lines lower than that amount) & “Total Games Played in the Match – 22.5” (or any lines lower than that amount) will be settled with “Over” bets as winning and “Under” bets as losing. Bets on lines higher than that will be settled as void.
 - Example 2 - Handicap: A retirement occurs at the start of the 3rd set in a match scheduled for 5 sets with the score at 1-1. Bets on +2.5/-2.5 Sets will be settled as winners and losers respectively. Offers on any lines lower than that amount will be settled as void.

- 4) All “Correct Score” (namely Set Betting and Game Betting) and “Odd/Even” offers, and those offers which refer to the winner of a particular period in the match (e.g., “Which player will win the first set?” and “Set 2 – Game 6: Winner”), require the relevant part of the match to be completed.
- 5) All types of offers not specified above require at least one set to be completed for bets to stand, except for those offers in which the outcome is already determined prior to an interruption of play and any further continuation of play could not possibly produce a different outcome.
- 6) In a Doubles match, all bets will be declared void if any of the stated players are substituted or replaced.
- 7) Any reference to “Grand Slams” will be based on the tournaments for that particular season to which the ITF attributes the definition, regardless of any venue, date or any other changes.
- 8) Bets on doubles matches in the Round Robin stages of the Davis Cup Finals, Billie Jean King Cup Finals and ATP Cup will always stand, even if the score in the tie is 2-0. For all other Davis Cup, ATP Cup and Billie Jean King Cup ties, the doubles matches will be void, if the tie has already been decided.
- 9) Results acquired in a "Pro Set" will be valid only for the following offers: "Match", "Set Handicap", "Set Betting" and "Total Sets". All other types of offers will be settled as void, with the exception of offers the outcome of which is already determined. Should a match be played in a format/number of sets different than that presumed at time the market was published, Prairie Band Sportsbook will void the applicable markets pertaining to X, Y, Z unless the necessary number of occurrences has already been achieved regardless of the change in format/number of sets.
- 10) As a general rule “tiebreaks” are always considered as 1 game only, regardless of the number of points needed to win or whatever the format of the “tiebreak”. The following tiebreaking scenarios will be settled as follows:
 - “Match tiebreak”: Normally played instead of the decisive set when both participants have won the same number of sets. For settlement purposes, this is considered as a full set as well as a game and counted accordingly. However, it will not be considered as a tiebreak for the settlement of the relevant offers;
 - “Tiebreak at 6-6 in a set, first to 7 points”: For settlement purposes, this is considered to be 1 game and counted accordingly as well as a tiebreak for the settlement of the relevant offers;
 - “Tiebreak at 6-6 in a set, first to 10 points”: For settlement purposes, this is considered to be 1 game and counted accordingly as well as a tiebreak for the settlement of the relevant offers;
 - “Tiebreak at 12-12 in a set, first to 7 points”: For settlement purposes, this is considered to be 1 game and counted accordingly as well as a tiebreak for the settlement of the relevant offers;
 - “Tiebreak at 3-3 in a set, first to 7 points” (aka Fast 4 format): For settlement purposes, this is considered to be 1 game and counted accordingly as well as a tiebreak for the settlement of the relevant offers;
 - “Tiebreak Tens”: A match which consists solely of a tiebreak with the winning participant being the one to first reach 10 points and lead by a margin of 2. This is considered both as a tiebreak and as a full match for the settlement of the relevant offers.

Should any match include a tiebreaking format not listed above, offers will be settled according to the definitions as described by the ITF or, in absentia, the closest in principle to the examples listed above.

11) Win/Place and Each-Way bets referring to the Tournament Winner placed between the time of the first publication of the main draw by the governing body and the start of the competition will be refunded should the listed participant not take any further part in the Tournament. Exception will be made for any participants still involved in the qualifying stages as these will be considered as active participants.

- 12) Bets on season related performances (e.g., "number of Grand Slam titles won" or "to finish top 20 yes/no" will be void if the player does not play at least 5 ranking point awarding events during the season.

30. Volleyball

- 1) Any points tallied during the so called "Golden Set" will not count for the settlement of the offers relating to that particular match, with the exception of any bets referring to tournament progression and Tournament Totals.
- 2) Offers referring to individual player performances in a single match (e.g., Total Points Scored by Player X) or relative performance of 2 individual players during the course of a match (e.g., Will Player X or Player Y score the most Points) require all listed individuals to be an active participant in the applicable match for bets to stand.
- 3) "Over/Under" and "Handicap" offers on unfinished matches in which the outcome is already determined prior to the interruption of play and/or where any further continuance of play could not produce a different outcome, such offers will be settled based on the result achieved prior to the interruption. For the calculation of these settlements, the minimum number of occurrences which were required to bring the offer to its natural conclusion will be added depending on the number of sets which the match is scheduled for. Should this calculation produce a situation where no possible variations could affect the outcome of the offer, this will be settled as such. See examples from the Tennis section for reference.
- 4) All "Correct Score" and "Odd/Even" offers, and those offers which refer to the winner of particular period/timeframe in the match (e.g., "Which team will win the 1st set?" and "Set 2 – Race to 15 points"), require the relevant part of the match to be completed.
- 5) All offers not specified above require at least one set to be completed for bets to stand, except for those offers in which the outcome is already determined before an interruption of play and any further continuation of play could not produce a different outcome.
- 6) Offers referring to individual player performance (e.g., Total Points Scored by Player X during the World Championship) or relative performance of 2 individual players over a particular period/tournament/season (e.g., Will Player X or Player Y score the most points during the Regular Season) require that all listed individuals must be an active participant in at least one more event applicable for the offer to stand. Bets placed after any news which can potentially reduce the number of markets any listed player is eligible for within the competition (e.g., injury/transfer/trade news), and theoretically alter the odds in favor of any particular outcome without the odds having been adjusted to reflect the current state of the bet, will be declared void.

31. Winter Sports

- 1) This section is valid for the following sports: Alpine Skiing, Biathlon, Cross Country Skiing, Freestyle, Nordic Combined, Short Track, Ski Jumping, Snowboard & Speed Skating.
- 2) Results from a competition will be deemed valid if it is declared as a valid competition for the relevant category, by the governing body for that sport. This applies in case of an event being shortened, such as only consisting of one run/jump instead of two, or an event being moved to another venue.
- 3) In cases of abandoned/uncompleted events, all offers in which the outcome has been determined before the interruption of play and any further continuation of play could not produce a different outcome are deemed valid and will be settled accordingly.

- 4) All offers will be settled as void if the original/stated format of an event is completely changed, like the size of hill in Ski Jumping, style in Cross Country Skiing, etc.
- 5) Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to apply Tattersalls Rule 4 in case of a non-starter in a “Group Betting” (“Best of X”) offer.
- 6) Offers related to specific Winter Sports events (excluding, for example, bets referring to Overall classifications, Olympic, World and Continental competitions) are offered with the explicit assumption that the particular event will be the next event held in that particular sports/discipline. Should the specific event be moved for any reason and a similar event for that sports/discipline is held in the same location starting in not more than 72 hours, the bets will be valid for the next scheduled event in that sports/discipline. For example, if two separate races from the same sports/discipline are scheduled for Friday and Saturday and the Friday competition is moved to Saturday or Sunday, the bets on the Friday competition will be settled in accordance with the next scheduled event, i.e., Saturday’s events. In cases where just 1 event is scheduled in that sports/discipline and the starting time is moved less than 72 hours, bets will remain valid and will be settled accordingly. Should no event with the same connotations be held in the 72 hour period after the initially scheduled time, bets will be settled as void.
- 7) In a “Head-to-Head” between two or three participants, at least one of the listed participants must complete the final run/stage/jump to which the bet refers, for bets to be considered valid. Such provision is not applicable for Cross Country Sprint events, which include different elimination stages, or to Ski Jumping. In such cases, settlement will be based on the official classification regardless of whether any of the listed participants completes the final run/stage/jump.
- 8) All bet offers will be settled based on the first official result being presented. However, Prairie Band Sportsbook will take into account and settle/re-settle, accordingly, following any changes to the official result issued within 24 hours after the event has taken place. For such eventuality to be considered, the protest must be attributable to incidents happening exclusively during the event, such as a line infringement, pushes or a false handover in a relay race, etc. No doping cases will be considered. The result available at the end of the aforementioned 24 hours will be deemed as binding regardless of any further protests, changes to the official result, etc.

32. Other (Non- Sport, Novelty and Special Bets)

- 1) The conditions stated in this section refer to all offers which would not be reasonably classified under the different sports categories (Ex. TV Programs, Awards & Prizes, Beauty Contests, Entertainment and similar). Whenever applicable, and unless otherwise stated in this section or in the offer, settlement of these offers will be based on the General Betting Rules, Section B, Paragraph 5.
- 2) Unless otherwise specified below or in conjunction with the bet offer, all bets which fall under this section are valid until a result is officially declared regardless of any delays in the announcement, extra voting rounds, etc. which would be needed for the outcome to be announced.
- 3) All open offers involving participants who withdraw/have been evicted from TV shows (either departing voluntarily or following an organizer’s decision) will be settled as lost. Should the same participant reenter the same competition at a later date, he/she will be treated as a new contestant thus previous bets will be settled as lost.
- 4) Bets referring to the removal of a participant are only valid for the next scheduled show. Any changes to the methods of eviction, amount and/or line-up of participants eliminated during the same program, or any other factors which were not reasonably expected, will result in the bets referring to “Next eviction” or “Next Elimination” to be voided.

- 5) In the event of the show terminating before an official winner is declared, bets will be settled as a tie (i.e., dead heat) between the contestants who have not been eliminated. Win/Place bets on contestants who have been already eliminated will be settled as lost.

Section D. eSports Specific Rules

1. Conditions of Agreement

A. Introduction

- 1) eSports betting is understood to encompass single or multi-player competitive video gaming in both online and/or offline setup. A list of the games/genres covered in this section can be found in Section D, Paragraph 2, of these House Rules.
- 2) Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to include and treat offers on events related to games/genres not listed in the eSports rules, provided they reasonably fit the description. Previous or future iterations of games/genre forming part of the same series will be treated as per the rules related to that particular game/genre as present in these House Rules, regardless of any different numbering and/or denomination. If a game, genre, event and/or offer related to it is not specifically listed in these House Rules, settlement of such offers will be based on the general principles established in the House Rules. When placing a bet with Prairie Band Sportsbook, the Account Holder is agreeing that they have read, understood and will be adhering to the Terms and Conditions present in this section as well as the other Terms and Conditions governing the usage of Prairie Band Sportsbook's Site.
- 3) Unless specifically stated in this section, the rules present in the General Betting Rules, Section B, apply. In the event of ambiguity, priority will be set in the following order:

Rules and conditions published in conjunction with an offer and/or campaign;

- i. eSports Game-specific rules (if applicable);
 - ii. eSports Genre-specific rules;
 - iii. eSports General Result Settlement rules;
 - iv. Prairie Band Sportsbook's General Betting Rules, Section B.
- 4) Should none of the above provide an adequate resolution, Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right, in its discretion, to settle offers on an individual basis on the basis of equity, using generally accepted betting norms, customs and definitions.

B. General Result Settlement Rules

- 1) When settling results, Prairie Band Sportsbook takes reasonable steps to use information obtained firsthand (during or exactly after the event has been concluded) from the governing body, through the game broadcast (whether TV, web-based or through other sources) and any relevant counters it might display, the game API and the official website. Should the required information be omitted from firsthand viewing and/or official sources, or if there is an obvious Error in the information included in the sources above, the settlement of the bet offer will be based on other public sources.
- 2) Settlement of bets will not include any changes arising from and/or attributable to disqualifications, penalizations, protests, sub-judice results, successive changes to the official result after the event has been completed and a result has been announced, even preliminarily, or the like. For bets referring to competitions which span over more than 1 round/stage (e.g., Tournament Bets), only amendments affecting bets which have not been settled yet will be taken into consideration. (e.g., a bet on a team to reach the semi-finals of a tournament will be considered as having been attained once the governing body deems it as such, even if the same team is disqualified from the tournament at a later stage for any reason).

- 3) Although Prairie Band Sportsbook takes reasonable precautions to represent an accurate rendition of the event as scheduled by the governing body, any references to the order in which the participants are shown, venue(s), etc. are to be deemed for information purposes only. Switching of Home/Away participants, as well as previously announced venues, will not be deemed as valid grounds for cancellation of bets placed.
- 4) Before or during an event/match, Prairie Band Sportsbook may decide to show current and past scores, counters and other statistics related to the offer. Prairie Band Sportsbook provides such data for information purposes only and will not be responsible for the accuracy of such data. All data presented in this regard must be treated as unofficial and any inaccuracy will not be deemed as valid grounds for the cancellation of bets placed.
- 5) Should the name of any participant/event/game be misspelled and/or be changed, bets will remain valid provided it is reasonably clear and can be ascertained through reputable sources that the object the bet has been placed upon is the same as the participant/event/game intended.
- 6) The deadline (cut-off time) shown on the Site is to be treated for information purposes only. Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right, at its own discretion, to suspend, partially or completely, the betting activity at any time where it deems necessary.

Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right, in its discretion, to void bets should any of the following situations arise:

- i. Prairie Band Sportsbook experience lags in receiving data/image streams from any of its sources/providers, resulting in Prairie Band Sportsbook presenting odds not reflecting the current state of the bet;
 - ii. it is reasonably obvious that bets have been placed from accounts which have access to data/image streams not available at that time to Prairie Band Sportsbook;
 - iii. bets have been placed after any participant has gained an advantage sufficient to alter the odds of any offer, even just theoretically, without the odds having been adjusted to reflect the current state of the bet.
- 7) Should a match start at a different time than that listed on the Site, this will not be deemed as valid grounds for cancellation of the bets, provided the exact same match is the next match taking place for both teams within the same tournament and is valid for the round/stage initially intended.
 - 8) Unless specifically stated, if the governing body includes any extra rounds/overtime, qualifying match(es) or series of matches in order to determine any classification and/or match outcome, Prairie Band Sportsbook will take into account the results and outcomes deriving from the added matches, rounds, overtime for settling bets referring to match/classification.
 - 9) All bet offers related to matches, or parts thereof, which do not take place at all or are awarded a result through a walk-over decision will be declared void. For settlement purposes, action within a match (or part thereof) is considered to have occurred if either the game clock has started or a participant performs an in-game action related to the match (or part thereof), whichever happens first.
 - 10) Offers related to matches or parts thereof which get abandoned for whatever reason, with no result declared by the official organization within 36 hours from the actual match start, will have the stakes refunded on those bet offers whose result has not yet been determined. All bet offers that have been decided prior to the abandonment and could not possibly be changed regardless of future events will be settled according to the decided outcome.
 - 11) For all Match odds, Series Outcome and Team to go Through offers, the first official decision on the outcome of the offer issued by the governing body within 36 hours of match completion/abandonment will be the deciding factor for the settlement of bets, including but not limited to any decisions involving disqualifications, withdrawals, concessions, etc., which will be taken into account for settlement purposes. In cases where the offer ends in a drawn outcome, with said outcome not having been available as a possible outcome for betting purposes, stakes will be refunded.

- 12) Should it be decided that an abandoned event (or part thereof) is to be continued within 36 hours of the original start time, all bets placed on the initial match will stand and will be settled through the outcomes arising from the continued play.
- 13) Should it be decided that an abandoned event (or part thereof) is to be restarted from the beginning within 36 hours of the original start time, all bets placed on the initial match which could not be settled through the outcomes deriving from the play prior to abandonment will be declared void.
- 14) Should it be the case that either participant is involved in a match from the same tournament with a different opponent between the time of the abandonment and the continuation of the initial match, all pending bets on the initial match will be settled as void regardless of the outcomes obtained during the continuation of the match.
- 15) Offers referring to Tournament outcomes and or matches/events scheduled over 2 or more days will remain valid, provided the event is considered completed and an official result is announced by the governing body within the specified year, regardless of the current/future participation (or lack thereof) of any listed and/or previously announced participant, unless otherwise stated.
- 16) Where matches have not been completed before their natural conclusion, but a result is issued through a decision by the governing body not more than 36 hours from the event's actual start without play having continued following the abandonment, Prairie Band Sportsbook will use the issued decision as the official result for the offers detailing the outcome of the match and/or tournament progress (e.g., Match odds and Participant to reach next round) provided the issued decision does not change the outcome of the bet offers at the time of the abandonment, in which case the stakes will be refunded. (E.g., Team A leading 2 Maps to nil in a best of 5 Maps match and Team B concedes: Association declares Team A as winner of the match = bet stands. Meanwhile if the same best of 5 Maps match was abandoned with the score 1-1 and the Association declares either team as the winner, the bet will be considered as void). All other offers will be declared void except for those the outcomes of which have been decided prior to the abandonment and could not possibly be changed regardless of future events, which will be settled according to the decided outcome.
- 17) Settlement of bet offers linked to counters (e.g., Total Kills) and any other offers related to specific terminology will be decided according to the definition with which the official governing body issues the statistics. Prairie Band Sportsbook will not consider inconsistent personal interpretations of such terms.
- 19) When placing "Outright" or "Place" bets, no stakes will be refunded on participants/outcomes that are not participating, withdraw from an event prior to the beginning of the entire event (including qualifying events), unless otherwise stated. Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right, at its own discretion, to apply Tattersalls Rule 4, as explained in General Betting Rules, Section B, Paragraph 6, on any competition and this will be stated in correlation to the bet offer and/or the relevant Sports-specific rule.
- 20) Offers referring to a single participant's performance in a specific event/timeframe (such as Tournament Progress of Team X) require the listed participant to play an active part at least once in a subsequent stage of the applicable event/timeframe after the bet has been placed and/or accepted.
- 21) No refunds of bets will apply, even if the winning outcome of a match/event is a participant/outcome that has not been listed for betting purposes. On all bet offers the patron has the possibility to ask for a price on a non-listed participant/outcome. Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right, at its own discretion, to decline such requests.

- 22) Offers which confront against each other the performances of two or more participants over a specified timeframe/competition will only be settled based on the result of the listed participants, disregarding all other participants in the same competition/event.
- 23) In case a participant is disqualified/withheld/banned from taking part in a subsequent part/phase of an event/competition for any reason whatsoever, as well as in case of voluntary withdrawals, the disqualification will be considered to have taken place at the time of the official announcement. No changes will be made to previous results, regardless of any modifications due to the actions.
- 24) In an “Outright” or “Place” bet, should two or more participants be considered to have obtained the same result and the governing body does not distinguish in their classification, dead heat rules as specified in the General Betting Rules, Section B, Paragraph 5, Clause 14, applies.
- 25) Prairie Band Sportsbook will refund stakes on offers comparing the achievements/performances of two participants within a specified timeframe (e.g., Tournament Best Finishing Position, Match Winner, Winner of Map X) should any of the following circumstances apply:
 - i. No odds were offered on a “draw” outcome and no tie-breaking procedures/overtime/extra rounds are used by the governing body to result in a match/offer or classify participants that obtained the same result;
 - ii. Any of the listed participants does not play any further part in any subsequent stage of the related event/part thereof after the bet has been placed and/or accepted;
 - iii. None of the listed participants is included in the applicable classification;
 - iv. None of the listed participants is deemed to have achieved the specified requirement after the bet has been placed and/or accepted and no odds for such outcome has been offered.
- 26) Offers comparing the achievements/performances of three participants will be treated as detailed in the preceding clause, with the exception that should two or more participants share the applicable finishing position dead heat rules as specified in the General Betting Rules, Section B, Paragraph 5, Clause 14, applies.
- 27) “Outright” and “Place” bets rules apply on offers comparing the achievements/performances of four or more participants, with the exception of those offers specifically listed as “Group Betting”. In such cases, stakes will be refunded if at least one of the listed participants is not actively involved anymore for whatever reason after the bet has been placed and/or accepted.
- 28) Unless the outcome of the offer has already been determined before any change is announced, bets referring to a race to a particular happening/totals of a particular occurrence (e.g., First participant to win X rounds, Over/Under Maps played) or the margins/difference of completed occurrence between participants (e.g., Map Handicap, Exact Map score in the match) will be settled as void if the match format is completely changed in a way that would alter the counter of such occurrences and their respective odds, including but not limited to cases where the number of scheduled Maps is changed from a previously announced odd number of scheduled Maps (e.g., Best of 1/3/5) to an even number of scheduled Maps (e.g., Best of 2/4/6) and vice-versa. Bets will stand and will be settled accordingly for those offers where the announced change is not relevant (e.g., Match odds will remain valid if the number of scheduled Maps is changed from the previously announced 3 Maps to 5 Maps), or the outcome of the offer has already been determined before any change is announced. The following example is being provided as a general guideline of how such bets would be treated in case of comparable situations: A bet on “To win 1st Map” will remain valid if a match is changed from 3 to 5 Maps but an Over/Under bet on Total Maps in the Match would be settled as void in a similar scenario.

- 29) Should Prairie Band Sportsbook erroneously offer odds and lines based on a different number of Maps/Games/Rounds from the correctly scheduled number of instances, settlement of offers referring to a race to a particular happening/totals of a particular occurrence (e.g., First participant to win X rounds, Over/Under Maps played) or the margins/difference of completed occurrence between participants (e.g., Map Handicap, Exact Map score in the match) will be settled as void if the match format is completely different in a way that would alter the counter of such occurrences and their respective odds, including but not limited to cases where the number of scheduled Maps is calculated on an odd number of scheduled Maps (e.g., Best of 1/3/5) when the match is scheduled for an even number of Maps (e.g., Best of 2/4/6) and vice-versa. Bets will stand and will be settled accordingly for those offers where the discrepancy is not relevant (e.g., Match odds will remain valid if the number of scheduled Maps quoted is 3 instead of the stipulated 5 Maps), or the outcome of the offer has already been determined before any change is announced. The following example is being provided as a general guideline of how such bets would be treated in case of comparable situations: A bet on “To win 1st Map” will remain valid if a match is listed as 3 instead of 5 Maps but an Over/Under bet on Total Maps in the Match would be settled as void in a similar scenario.
- 30) During specific events Prairie Band Sportsbook might decide, solely at its own discretion, to offer for betting purposes a reduced selection of participants which could include betting options such as “Any Other”, “The Field”, or similar. This option includes all unlisted participants except for the ones mentioned specifically as available. Prairie Band Sportsbook reserves the right to list/specify more participants at a later stage. Should these newly listed participants be the winning outcome, they will be considered as having been unlisted until the time they have actually been introduced to the list and settled accordingly.
- 31) Offers that make a specific reference to a participant’s performance in a particular event/timeframe (e.g., Team X vs The Field or Winner without Team X) are to be considered void if the mentioned participants fail to play an active part at least once in a subsequent stage of the applicable event/timeframe after the bet has been placed and/or accepted.
- 32) Should a match start with a different number of players than that encompassed in the event regulations (e.g., Either team starts a match with only 4 players instead of the scheduled 5 players), all bets will be deemed void. In case either team loses momentarily and/or permanently from the match any number of players, after the match has started with the stipulated number of participants as per the event regulation, bets will remain valid.
- 33) Bets on matches/events featuring participants which use a different/wrong nickname or using a so-called “smurf account” will stand, provided it does not become reasonably obvious that the participant using that particular nickname is not the one intended. In such cases bets will be settled as void.
- 34) Bets on a team are to be considered valid regardless of the individuals used by the team as participants. Should the governing body deem it permissible for a team to play with a stand-in participant or replacement player, all bets will stand provided an official result is issued.
- 35) Any form of a qualification ahead of the main tournament (where applicable) is considered to be a valid part of that competition. Thus, any participant who is eliminated at qualification stage will be considered losing to anyone that is pre-qualified or is successful in the qualification stage.
- 36) In the case of bets where there is reference to timeframes, they should be interpreted in the following way: “within the first 30 minutes” will include anything happening until 0 hours 29 minutes and 59 seconds; “between 10 to 20 minutes” will include anything happening from 10 minutes and 0 seconds until 19 minutes and 59 seconds, etc.

- 37) Any bets referring to duration represent the actual time passed in the map/round/event, as applicable. For example, a bet on Over 30.5 minutes in a Map will be settled as Over once 30 minutes and a half in the specified map have passed.
- 38) Any reference to “Winner” and/or “Upper” bracket will remain valid regardless of whether Maps and/or any other advantages are awarded via the event rules to any participant.
- 39) Advantages awarded via event structure will be considered for settlement purposes, unless otherwise specified. Nonetheless, any reference to specific indexes of Maps, Games, etc. as presented on the Site is always to be considered as relevant to the phase of the match being actually played. Example: in a best of 3 Maps match where Team A starts with a 1 Map advantage, any Map 1 related offers will actually refer to the outcomes emanating from the second Map of the match (i.e., the first Map to be actually played).
